Hawks win No. 7

HARRISON'S DRIVES consisted of 13. 13 and 10 plays and covered of 17. 90 and 65 yards, respectively. The Hawks scored on the opening possession, Coleman running 6 yards for the score after Matt Conley pounded the middle on four previous plays.

The Chiefs forced a Harrison punt the next time, but the Hawks used much of the clock with successful drives on their third and fourth possessions.

Coleman, who was 8-of-12 for 116 yards in the first half, passed 17 yards to Steve Hill, and Conley dived 2 yards to make it 21-0 with 1:52 left in the half.

CANTON'S FIRST goal was to prevent the big play, which it did. Second, it wanted to hold the ball and keep it away from Harrison's explosive offense, which it didn't. Harrison outgained the Chiefs 385-

127 and had 21 first downs to Can-ton's five, including a 15-2 difference to the first half. Canton quarterback Karl Whike was 8-of-24 for 86 yards and the state of 15 for 86 yards and 15 for 15 yards rushing on eight carrier, 33 coming on a late first-half run that gave Canton's of-fense its best scoring opportunity. The Chiefs were at the Harrison 13, but Roy Granger Intercepted for the Hawks.

"Our defense didn't do too bad," Khoenle said. "The thing is our of-fense didn't control the ball too much, which is due to the fact they're a good defensive team."

COLEMAN FINISHED 9-0f-19
passing for 129 yards, and Harrtson
had a big game rushing with Conley gaining 121 of the team's 256 rushing yards on 27 attempts. Coleman added 55 on 12 carries, and Hill caught four passes for 64 yards.
Although the Hawks have suffered periodic lapses in their last three games, they continue to win impressively, and that can't be overlooked, Herrington said.
