

With your help,
people with learning disabilities
can find a new direction.

For one in five American adults, getting around is nearly impossible because they are functionally illiterate. And their number is growing by two and a half million each year. Approximately half grew up with a learning disability and are unable to read.

Your contribution to the United Way Torch Drive supports agencies like the Detroit Institute for Children. Their learning disability diagnostic programs keep kids who can't read from becoming lost in the world around them. Plus, you're helping 153 agencies in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties that fight disease and assist the elderly.

Please, think about how much your contribution does and how much more there is to be done. This year give even more to the United Way Torch Drive. And help people get going in the right direction.
