IMPERIAL JEWELRY
Imperial Jewelry, offering a different concept in jewelry retailing, opens Friday in downtown Farmington, 33425 Grand River, next door to Focal Point Studio of Photography, just west of Farmington Road.

"Beside offering quality gold and silver jewelry as well as high-fashion and designer costume jewelry, we will also have personnel available to put on jewelry fashion shows for organizations, churches, and clubs," said Iral Blay, co-owner.

"This will enable various organizations to use quality jewelry fashion shows as a money-making project," he said, "as a percentage of the price of the jewelry purchased at these fashion shows will be given to the organization sponsoring the show."

The selection offered at these fashion shows will be the same as that offered for sale at the store, said Jarold King, co-owner. It will include designer chains, bracelets, necklaces, earrings, charms, rings and watches.

Some custom jewelry will also be available to order at both the store and the shows.

Imperial Jewelry hours will be 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Mondays through Thursdays, 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Fridays, and 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturdays.

COLONIAL CAR WASH
Colonial Car Wash, a soft-cloth exterior wash, opened at 33500 Nine Mile, west of Farmington Road, in Farmington.

Hours are 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday through Saturday, and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday. Owner Mark Owen can be reached at 477-6422.

FAMILY PHYSICIAN
Dr. Anthony Munaco of Farmington Hills has completed medical education requirements to retain active membership in the American Academy of Family Physicians, the national association of family doctors.

The requirements call for the members to complete a minimum of 150 hours of accredited continuing medical study every three years. The academy, the country's largest medical association, with more than 60,000 members, was the first national medical group to require members to keep up with medical progress through continuing education.

OSTEOPATHIC GROUP VP
Dr. Richard Knight was elected third vice president of the American Osteopathic Association, a medical association representing the nation's 27,000 osteopathic physicians.

The certified general practitioner has been on the staff of Botsford General Hospital in Farmington Hills since 1967. He was president of the staff in 1986.

Knight has been chairman, board of directors, Blue Cross Network Southeast Michigan (1988-89), vice chairman, board of directors, Blue Cross Network Southeast Michigan (1981-88); and vice chairman, board of directors, Blue Cross Blue Shield of Michigan (1988-present).

He has been on the board of directors of Blue Cross Blue Shield of Michigan since 1984. He has been executive director, Botsford Staff Physicians, and president and medical director, Botsford Medical Group, P.P.G. (1980-present).

Knight has been a trustee of the Michigan Association of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons (MAOPS) since 1983. He has been elected president for 1988-89 term.

Practice and a diplomate of the National Osteopathic Board of Examiners.

ALUMNI BOARD

Marion Hinge of Farmington was named to the Wayne State University Alumni Association board of directors.

Hinge, who earned liberal arts degrees in 1970 and 1977, is director of current giving for the Detroit Medical Center.

SMALL FIRM FORUM

Ely Tama of Farmington Hills attended the 1989 National Small Firm Conference in Chicago sponsored by the American Institute of CPAs and co-sponsored by the Illinois CPA Society.

The two-day conference focused on the interests of today's individual practitioners and smaller local CPA firms.

Tama met with 300 colleagues to discuss such topics as management techniques for local CPA firms, financial administration, staffing strategies, partnerships and productivity.

Tama is president of Tama and Budaj, P.C., in Farmington Hills.

JOINS FIRM

George E. Reid, a Farmington Hills native, has joined BDO Seidman, a national accounting and consulting firm in Grand Rapids.
