Walk raises $35,000

Members of Antioch Lutheran Church participated in the 1989 World Hunger Walk sponsored by the Southeastern Michigan Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

The 10-mile walk in Detroit and the Grosse Pointes, raised $35,000 which will be divided for use in the metro Detroit area and by Lutheran World Relief around the world.

The Antioch walkers included Farmington Hills residents Janet Backstrand, Matt Parks, Martin Butler, Mike Kovach, Holly Cyrus, Courtney Carlson, Kelly Rouke, Jessica Stanton, Stacey Clements, Kim

Neeley, Eric Whitten and Aaron Nelson. Farmington residents Robin Worman and Jessica Haeuserl and Johie Ziegler of Novi also participated in the Antioch group, which had a total of 8875 in pledges.

Over the past nine years, the World Hunger Walk has generated $180,000 for relief efforts and development projects in areas such as Namibia, the Sudan and Mozambique. Monies have also been given to local agencies such as Focus Hope and COTS.

For information, contact Antioch Lutheran Church at 626-7906.

Center marks 20th year

Editor's note: For 20 years the doors of The Community Center have been kept open through the work of men and women who volunteer to serve as its directors. The Farmington Observer introduces the members of the 1989 board to readers as part of the center's 20th anniversary year observance.

The couple has one son, Jeffrey.

Local businessman and 15-year Farmington Hills resident Michael Hermanoff has recently joined the board of directors of The Community Center Farmington-Farmington Hills.

As a member of the finance committee, Hermanoff looks forward to development work and fund-raising for the center, which he believes is a wonderful community resource.

He and his wife, Sandy, president of Hermanoff & Associates Inc., particularly enjoyed the 20th anniversary celebration of the center, which

VARIABLE RATE*	FIXED RATE
9.75% A.P.R. up to 15 years	11.95% A.P.R. up to ten years

*This is our October 1989 starting A.P.R. A 14.75% A.P.R. Cap applies. The starting A.P.R. is a special introductory rate for the first six months of your loan, at which time the regular A.P.R. (10.57% on October 1989 goes into effect. For example, based on the current index, the regular monthly payment for a $10,000, borrowed on an 18-year loan would be $9.94 for the first six payments based on a 9.75% A.P.R. and $10.56 for the remaining 120 payments based on a 10.57% A.P.R. The overall A.P.R. for the entire loan term in the example would be 10.84%. Of course, A.P.R. and payment changes after the introductory period may occur if the index varies at the time rate changes are determined.
**If you choose a fixed rate loan, your monthly payment would be $14.32 for each $1,000 borrowed.
