Center marks 20th year

Editor's note: For 20 years the doors of The Community Center have been kept open through the work of men and women who volunteer to serve as its directors. The Farmington Observer introduces the members of the 1989 board to readers as part of the center's 20th anniversary year observance.

Farmington Hills Assistant City Manager David Call wears several hats at The Community Center Farmington-Farmington Hills. A third-year member of the center's board of directors, Call is serving his second term as both board secretary and chairman of the long-range planning committee.

Call said he feels his most significant contribution to the center was his involvement with the feasibility study prepared by a consulting agency that outlined goals and objectives for the center.

His interests include boating, golf, racquetball and other outdoor activities.

He and his wife Joan live in Farmington Hills with their 1 1/2 old daughter.
