campus pipeline

Twenty Indiana University students have been named to the varsity cheerleading squad.

Among those participating, is junior Alex Asari of Farmington Hills.

The cheerleading squad is composed of 10 male and 10 female students who support men's and women's basketball, soccer and football. The squad practices four times a week and spends many additional hours practicing partner stunts, jumps, gymnastics and conditioning.

The cheerleaders have won several national and regional honors during the past two years for their skill in supporting IU's athletic programs.

Julie Ann Synkonis of Farmington Hills was one and recent graduate have been elected into membership in Phi Beta Kappa honor society. Phi Beta Kappa is the oldest academic honorary society in existence, having been founded in 1776 at the College of William and Mary in Virginia. Election to Phi Beta Kappa is considered to be one of the highest honors that can be achieved by undergraduate students in the liberal arts or sciences.
