Spartans bombard Livonians

"WE WORKED on our rebounding (in practice) since the Saginaw game along with our mental preparation." said the Borgess coach. "We talked about focusing on playing hard for 32 minutes."

32 minutes."

Borgess came out smoking in the opening quarter, outscoring the Livonians 30-11 behind Shawn Respert's 13 points. The 6-foot-3 senior, headed for Michigan State, finished with 17 to lead all scorers.)

By halfillme the best Spartans had opened up a 55-26 advantage.
"We never got untracked," MeIntyre said. "Basically they (Borgess) were up on us more in terms of pressure than maybe were used to seen ing. There were things open out there if we had been more patient, they are not on the said of the said of cause we were able to get out on the break and stretch our legs," sald Fusco, whose team is 4-1. "Livonia Stevenson plays a style that allows us to do that. They like to run and so do we."

Fusco substituted freely in the second half and by the fourth quar-ter both benches had been emptied,

Three other Borgess players scored in double figures. Senior forward Randy White added 14 points, while junior center ReShawn Sumler contributed 12 and Artie Brown chipped in with 11.

Brown actually tallied 14 points, but one of his three-point shots in the second quarter was entered in the official scorer's book as only two.

Eagles eke out win

Terry Koerner's free throws in the final minute enabled the St. Mary's ollege basketball team to defeat Chicago St. Xavier 53-50 Tuesday

Stevenson with 14 points.

Senior guard Ron Baran, the team's top scorer, never got into sync. He finished with 12. Senior center Steve Leonard added 10.

The visiting Spartans may have been a bit rusty going into the game. They weren't able to practice either Monday or Sunday because the Livon Hay weren't able to practice either Monday or Sunday because the Livon in Public School's had toked them out of their gym for the holidays.

Or note: Above it that was a factor note of their gym for the holidays.

We disciplined '2' (6-100-2) cilian with the constant of their gym for the start and the first start a kid if he hasn't been at practice the aby before. Maybe we shouldn't have started any of them because every-body missed two days of practice."

MEANWHILE, Borgess can point College basketball team to defeat Chicago St. Xavier 53-59 Tuesday night.

Koerner made both ends of a 1-and-1 to give the Eagles a 51-50 lead with 34 seconds remaining. After another St. Xavier foul, St. Mary's worked the clock before Joachim Jerichow sank two free throws with three seconds left.

The game was cost throughout, with the Eagles leading most of the way. St. Mary's was in front 30-27 at balltime.

After being inserted back into the game with 6:27 left, Brown got a bit mixed up. Stevenson's Matt Grodzicki missed a free throw, Brown grabbed the loose ball and put up a short 10-foot turn-around jumper that hit nothing but net.

short 10-fool turn-around jumper that hit nothing but not.

AFTER REALIZING he had made the error, Brown showed he was only human, smilling sheepishly.

"I didn't see too many of our shots go swish like that," cracked McIntre, "We certainly could have used that kind of shooter tonight, He can shoot the ball. Maybe Grodzick should thank him (Brown) for glving shim two more points."

Rick Laven, a senior guard, led AFTER REALIZING he had made he error, Brown showed he was only human, smilling sheepishly.

Ron Orris set two meet records and neiped Plymouth Salem with the 200-yard medley retally Saturday in the Trenton invitational. Team scores were not recorded in the six-team swim meet that included Belleville, Warren De LaSalle, Dearborn and Grosse Pointe North in the heatterfly and backstroke. His time of 152.8 in the butterfly broke the 21-year-old record of 53.8 set by former Plymouth High swimmer Patl McGord.

Orris, a senior All-American, later went 55.6 in the backstroke to shatter the mark of 57.6 by Greg Gooksey, a Grosse Pointe North alum.

"We have a few guy sou with ill-ness, but things are beginning to take shape." Salem coach Chuck Olson said. "If think, if they had kept score, we would probably have won it."

Henry Ford took advantage of the mistakes by scoring four straight points to pull within two.

But with 13 seconds left and a 75-73 lead, Schoolcraft's Randy Waters, a 92 percent free throw shooter, missed the front end of a one-and-one, setting up Volbert's game-winning heave.

Schoolcraft's Ken Puster, a 6-foot-2 sophomore guard from River Rouge, was named to the all-tourney team. He finished with 20 points and six assists.

"KENNY WAS outstanding the entire tourney." Bogatal said. "He had 23 the first game, but he had to handle the ball all the time and that's not good. He needs some help."

All Hudson, a 6-6 sophomore, added 13 points and eight rebounds. Waters contributed 12 points, while the 6-4 EA Hudson grabbed nine rebounds. Despite the loss, SC outrebounded the Hawke, 33-15.

The Ocelots led by as many as 18 points in the first half before getting into foul trouble.

Henry Ford sliced the lead to 41-31 at the half before rallying to outscore SC 45-34 in the final 20 minutes.
