

Nursery calls tots

Nardin Park Community Nursery School opens registration for the 1990-91 school year.

Applications for siblings of Nardin Park alumni will be accepted now. Applications from everyone else will be accepted beginning Jan. 22.

Nardin Park offers developmental programs for 3- and 4-year-olds featuring a hands-on approach. The child uses all of his senses as he participates in a play atmosphere.

The program is semi-structured, offering children opportunities to work in interest centers with supervision from the teachers as well as daily planned group activities.

The child's creativity is encouraged through various art media, dramatic play situations, music, creative movement, stories and discussion and sharing experiences with other children.

Field trips are an integral part of the program.

Both large- and small-muscle coordination and readiness skills are developed.

Three-year-olds attend half-day sessions twice a week. Four-year-olds attend half-day sessions three times per week.

The primary focus of the program is developing a positive self-concept.

Nardin Park Community Nursery School is at 29887 11 Mile, west of Middlebelt, in Nardin Park Community Methodist Church.

To obtain an application or for more information, call Carol Palalan at 851-8859.

Community ed expands its classes for kids

Farmington Public Schools are expanding their community education classes for kids.

Youth classes, for children in preschool through middle school, will now be given in Highmeadow, Longacre, Farmington Community School, and Farmington High School. Most classes will run eight weeks.

Classes in science, reading, math, physical education, art, drama and computers will once again be offered. Children will have the opportunity to learn French, Spanish, and Japanese.

New children's classes this session include an organ and piano ensemble, sign language, skakin' healthy, plaster painting, clay for kids, and manners for moppets.

Through games and drills, keyboarding for kids will teach typing skills necessary for using a computer. In addition, junior video production will instruct kids in using video camcorders to make videos for school and recreational projects.

Further information about all classes is available in "K-ommunity Ed for Kids," distributed to elementary school children.

Registration is now being taken at Farmington Community School, 30415 Shawwassee, Monday through Friday 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m. or Monday through Thursday, 7-9 p.m. Registration by mail is also accepted. For questions call Farmington Community School, 489-3333.

GOOD NEWS, FORD SALARIED EMPLOYEES!

You can sign up for M-CARE January 8 through January 19. See your personnel benefits representative.

With M-CARE, the sky is not the limit.

There's a serious accident. Time is crucial. A helicopter is dispatched to speed the victim to the University of Michigan Burn Center... a service you, hopefully, will never have to call on. But it's there if you need it, and much, much more through M-CARE.

M-CARE is the only HMO that links all the resources of the U of M Medical Center to the personal care of your family doctor and your nearby hospital. M-CARE covers you for office visits, checkups, hospitalization—even emergency helicopter transport.

Of course, with the M-CARE network of hospitals in cities like Royal Oak, Dearborn and Rochester, you don't always have to go to the U of M Medical Center. But isn't it good to know it's there whenever you need it? To find out more, ask your employer. Or call M-CARE at 747-8700.
