Hal's mom hit with fellow bowlers

EVERY NOW AND THEN, somebody gets a little special treatment around the bowling league. That was the case last Tuesday at Drake's Lanes in Farmington Hills.

A very nice cake was served to Emily Newhouse in celebration of her 93rd birthday.

Emily is a regular bowler in the "Golden Oldies" senior citizens league. They compete every Tuesday afternoon.

In case you haven't guessed, Emily Newhouse is the mother of former Detroit Tiger pitching great Hal Newhouse. She is a real bowling enthusiast and has been bowling for a long time.

The elder Newhouse was once a member of the local traveling leagues and is very proud of her many years of accom-calls some of the classic match-ups with Bob Pettit and the Indians.

Some of you may be wondering what Newhouse's secret is for staying young and healthy. In fact, she carries many of her old press clippings in her purse.

Newhouse is even prouder yet of the accomplishments of her son, Hal. She reand healthy. According to her, it's simple — "Don't smoke."

There is a new radio talk show of interest to bowlers on WPON (1410 AM). This is the creation of Roy Akers and is called the Oakland County Bowling Roundup.

Even though the show is based in Northern Oakland County, it will still be of interest to all those who love the sport. This week's show will include an interview with touring pro Lisa Wagner.

The Westland Bowl Co. Open Team Tournament is now accepting entrance applications, any team may enter. First prize is $1,500 based on 40 entries. The event will take place at 1:30 p.m., Sunday March 18.

COLLEGE SWIMMING

Cindy Grush of Farmington Hills won the 100-yard freestyle with a time of 1:09.01 at the Kalamazoo College women's swim team defeated Olivet College 148-20 earlier this month. Grush is a graduate of Farmington Hills Mercy High School and the daughter of Ernest and Mary Grush.

COACHES NEEDED

Walled Lake Consolidated Schools needs assistant coaches for boys and girls track, football and baseball. Candidates should send their resumes to Robert Atkins, Walled Lake Consolidated School District, 615 N. Pontiac Trail, Walled Lake 48088. They also can call Atkins at 624-6604 between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. during the week.

Farmington Hills Mercy High School is searching for a JV soccer coach. Candidates should call Athletic Director Suzanne Brown at 476-2835 or write to her at 29300 Eleven Mile Rd., Farmington Hills 48018.

Central spikes Falcon netters

Walled Lake Central got the better of Farmington in volleyball Wednesday, sending the Falcons to their seventh straight defeat in league matches.

Farmington is 6-7 in the Western Lakes Activities Association and 0-15 overall after the Vikings claimed a 15-6, 15-10, 15-6 victory.

"There was nothing wrong with our play," Farmington coach Sharon Hecker said. "Walled Lake Central just dominated. We lost 15-6, 15-10 last year, so when we get back to playing 15-10 I feel a lot better."

Bonnie Wheelis recorded five kills to lead the Falcons, and Carrie Miller followed with four. Jennifer McElhinney and Miller had four aces and three digs apiece.

Glenn defeats Hawks

Westland John Glenn's Chris Prough won three events Wednesday and topped the all-around gymnasts with a 32.5 total to place the Rockets.

Glenn scored 121.7 to outdistance visiting Farmington Hills Harrison, which compiled a 102.1 total.

Prough achieved 8.0 on the vault, 7.9 on the uneven parallel bars and 8.5 on floor exercise, winning those events. She was second on the balance beam at 8.1.

Glenn teammate Nicky Coombs captured first place on beam with an 8.25 and placed second in the all-around category with a 30.5 score. Coombs also came in third on bars (7.05), and she tied with teammate Jenny Durdan (7.95) on floor.

Harrison's Colleen Heinemann and Amy Solomon also competed in the all-around, taking third (26.65) and fourth (26.6), respectively.

Heinemann placed second on bars (7.4) and seventh on vault (6.5) and floor (6.55). Other gymnasts who contributed to Glenn's score included Gina Martin, second on vault, 7.85; fifth on floor, 7.25; Amy Finley, third on vault, 7.65; fourth on bars, 6.75; Jessica Giriglio, fourth on vault, 7.35; and Buffy Schuch, third on beam, 7.9.

Harrison's Michelle Davis was sixth on vault (7.05) and tied with Heinemann on floor, and Kara Burman placed sixth on beam (7.05) and tied with Martin of Glenn on floor. The Hawks are 0-10.
