Historic items on display at library

Original signatures of both Abraham Lincoln, 16th president, and his Secretary of State, William Seward, are on display during February at the Farmington Community Library, 23737 12 Mile.

Accompanying them is a copy of the New York Herald for Saturday, April 15, 1865 (8:10 a.m. Extra) headlining the assassination of the president, along with the attempt on the life of William Seward. On the same front page is the speech of Confederate President Jefferson Davis in Richmond. The material, loaned by Richard Brown of Farmington Green, is offered through the auspices of the Farmington Hills Historical Commission.
