

recreation news

Each week, the Farmington Hills Department of Special Services Recreation Division presents a synopsis of upcoming activities. For more information about programs, call the recreation office, 473-8570. For matters regarding city council agenda items, call Newsline at 476-3838.

Winter funfest
Plan to enjoy wintertime activities at Heritage Park noon to 4 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 11. This outdoor family event includes a family cross-country ski tour, ice skating, snow figure contest, sledding, snow volleyball and other snow games. Hot refreshments will be available.

Softball registration
Registration will be accepted at the Recreation Office on a first-come, first-served basis for adult softball teams interested in participating in a 14 summer game schedule, 10 games for co-ed league. Leagues are available for men, women and co-ed teams. Fees are $390 for Open Leagues, $350 for Resident and Industrial and $310 for co-ed leagues. Interested managers can call the recreation office at 473-8570 for further information.

Valentine celebration
Children ages 5-10 can join the Recreation Division's mascot, "Pinky, the Panda," for a morning of games, arts and crafts and storytelling as we celebrate Valentine's Day. The activity will be at Longacre Elementary School 10-11:30 a.m. Saturday, Feb. 10. Pre-registration is required.

Youth soccer
Registration is being accepted until Monday, March 10, for children in grades kindergarten through third for the spring soccer program. Children will play six games on Saturdays, beginning April 21, and practice once a week for an hour. Fee is $17 per person. Volunteer coaches are needed.

White water adventure
Meet the challenge of rafting the Cheat River in West Virginia. The Cheat is one of the largest uncontrolled watersheds in the Eastern United States. The river boasts class 2 and 5 plus rapids. The $165-per-person fee is based on two night's accommodations, single or double, motor coach transportation, lunch on Saturday and rafting fees. The trip will be May 18-20. You must pre-register by Friday, April 13.

Canoe and Kayak Club
Individuals or families, from beginners to experts, can register as a member of the Recreation Division's Canoe and Kayak Club. Activities include lessons, trips (both local and out-of-state), newsletter and special events. Fee is $6 for an individual and $8 for the family.

Ice rinks and sled hill
Weather permitting, you can enjoy ice skating on the pond near the Spicer House parking lot or ice hockey near the comfort station close to the back parking lot. The sled hill is also near the back parking lot. The park is open dawn to dusk.

Youth sleep-over Youth in first through fifth grades are invited to enroll in our winter youth sleep-over, Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 3 and 4. The event starts at 8 p.m. Saturday night and ends at 8:30 a.m. Sunday. The evening activities include gym games, arts & crafts and recreational swimming. Pizza will be served. Interested participants must sign up by Feb. 1.

Ski trip
A great opportunity for 6th, 7th and 8th grade students to try downhill skiing at Alpine Valley. The event will be 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 20. Interested participants must register at the Y by Feb. 14.

Winter II registration
Registration for the Y's Winter II Program Session will be Feb. 12 through Feb. 17. Winter II Programs are scheduled to begin the week of Feb. 26. Class offerings include a variety of fitness classes for adults, gymnastics and aquatics, programs for youth and adults, also a variety of wellness opportunities for the entire family. Full privilege member registration is Monday, Feb. 12 followed by member and program member registration from Feb. 13 through Feb. 17. The business office is open 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday.

Corporate breakfast
The Farmington Area YMCA will be hosting a Corporate Wellness Breakfast 7:30-9 a.m. at the Y Company personnel directors and human resource staff are encouraged to attend. The morning's program will draw attention to the increasing emphasis on wellness in the work place and highlight ways corporations can minimize health care costs and maximize employee productivity. YMCA staff will be available to answer questions regarding their corporate program. Call Greg Voss, 553-4020 for more information and to make reservations.

Winter basketball program
Teens 14-18 are encouraged to enroll in our 1st annual Winter Madness 3 on 3 Basketball Tournament. The event will be on Thursday, Feb. 22. There will be boys and girls divisions for full privilege and program members. Call Jean Warren, 553-4020 for more information.
