

BPW District 9 Will Meet Sunday

Mrs. Helen Ellmore, president of the Michigan division of the National Secretaries Association, will be speaker for the meeting of District 9 of the Business and Professional Women's Club Sunday, Jan. 31.

The day's program in the Mayflower Meeting House, Plymouth, will begin at 9:30 a.m. with a coffee hour.

Mrs. Ellmore will discuss "Personal Development" when she addresses the 12:30 p.m. luncheon session.

BPW clubs in District 9 include those from Farmington, Garden City, Livonia, Plymouth, South Redford, Westland, Wayne, Lola Valley and Northville.

Those attending the meeting Sunday will get details on the BPW state convention in Kalamazoo in May and a March 27 and 28 weekend in Shanty Creek Lodge in northern Michigan for those interested in personal development.

Pre-Natal Classes To Begin

The Wayne County Dept. of Health will begin a series of classes for expectant mothers Wednesday, Feb. 3, from 7 to 8:30 p.m.

The classes will meet once a week for six consecutive weeks and will be conducted by public health nurses from the Wayne County Dept. of Health. Any pregnant woman in Wayne County who is under medical supervision is eligible to enroll.

Classes will be held at the Community Building, Federal Dept. Store, Taylortown Shopping Center, on Ecorse Road at Pardee in Taylor.

Questions and concerns of common interest to expectant mothers, including growth of the baby, care of the mother during pregnancy, labor and delivery, and care of the newborn infant, will be discussed.

For registration, call the Wayne County Dept. of Health, 274-2800, ext. 6901 any weekday between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Champagne Dance Set

The Raleigh House in Southfield will be the setting for the seventh annual champagne dinner dance, Feb. 7, sponsored by the Mr. and Mrs. Club of Sts. Constantine and Helen Greek Orthodox Church of Detroit.

Music will be furnished by the Blu-Tones. Tickets must be purchased in advance by calling William Colovas, 278-7391, or Frank Cason, 338-3381; or by writing St. Andrew's Fellowship, in care of Mrs. Colovas, 4801 Oakman Blvd., 48204.

Wed By Candlelight

Orchard United Methodist Church in Farmington was the setting for the candlelight wedding of Janice Gail Davis and Air Force Lt. Michael Mirek on Dec. 26.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert V. Davis of Milford, formerly of Farmington, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Mirek of Sterling Heights.

The Rev. Eric S. Hammar officiated.

For the Farmington Community Center reception that followed the double-ring ceremony, the cake table was covered by a lace cloth made by Mrs. Alma Green of Escanaba, the bride's 90-year-old grandmother who was unable to attend the wedding.

GIVEN BY HER FATHER in marriage, the bride wore a delustrated satin empire gown with high neckline and long full sleeves. Eyelet lace and satin ribbon trimmed both the gown and the full-length mantilla veil, and the bridal bouquet was a cascade of variegated ivy, cymbidium orchids and Stephanotis.

Karen Kalkonen of Farmington, as maid of honor, wore an empire gown of light antique gold peau de soie with gold metallic braid trim.

Her flowers were yellow fuji mums and starflowers.

The other attendants wore similar gowns in pale Grecian olive and carried yellow mums.

The bridesmaids were Denise Mirek, sister of the bridegroom, Margaret Flynn of Southgate and Cindy Brandau of Ferndale, and Eileen Mirek, younger sister of the bridegroom, was junior bridesmaid.

DAVID YENGLIN of Troy assisted the bridegroom as best man. Seating the guests were Robert Davis Jr., brother of the bride, Art Mirek, cousin of the bridegroom, and Ben Earl of Warren.

Mrs. Davis' dress was bone silk crepe and Mrs. Mirek wore a two-piece blue silk tulle ensemble.

Graduates of MSU Marry In Livonia

Two Michigan State University graduates were married Saturday, Dec. 19, in St. Matthew Methodist Church, Livonia.

The bride is the former Joan Marie Skolnik, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer W. Skolnik of Peppermill Street, Farmington, and the bridegroom is Richard Charles Fox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Fox of Stanmoor Street, Livonia.

The Rev. Paul T. Hart and the Rev. John Martin officiated at the double ring ceremony.

THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her father, wore a full-length gown of white peau de soie. Lace and seed pearls trimmed the bodice of the gown and the long train. Her bouffant veil of illusion was held by a tiara of rhinestones. She carried a red rose surrounded by pink sweetheart roses and white roses.

The attendants were Carole Lucaccioni of Northbrook, Ill., as maid of honor, and Elaine Skolnik, the bride's sister, and Mrs. Shirley Sneath of Arlington, Va., the bridegroom's sister, as bridesmaids. All wore long rose-colored dresses in an A-line style. They carried colonial nosegays of pink carnations and a red rose.

ALLEN AISEN, 25, best man, Jack Ellis and Clifford Beresh were the ushers.

A reception was held immediately afterwards in the church's Fellowship Hall.

The bridegroom is attending Union Theological Seminary in Dayton, Ohio.

Fathers Perform Ceremony

Fathers of the bride and bridegroom served as officiating clergymen.

Fathers of the bride and bridegroom served as officiating clergymen when Eva Marie Walaskay and Dennis Lloyd Wortz were joined in marriage Dec. 26.

Parents of the couple are the Rev. and Mrs. John Walaskay of Ann Arbor Trail, Plymouth, and the Rev. and Mrs. Lloyd Wortz of Howell.

The wedding took place in the Plymouth Assembly of God church, with Rev. Walaskay and Rev. Wortz bearing the couple's vows. The bride's father gave her in marriage.

THE BRIDE's white crepe gown featured full sleeves, a wide cummerbund and an eight-foot train falling from the shoulders.

Mrs. James Walaskay, as matron of honor, wore a gown with a burgandy velvet skirt and a bodice fashioned of tapestry-flowered velvet.

The bridesmaids, Mrs.

John H. Walaskay, Mrs. David E. Walaskay, Mrs. William Norgrove and Sunny Roller, wore similar gowns with dark green velvet skirts.

Monique Walaskay, in a floor-length burgandy velvet dress, was flower girl, and David E. Walaskay II was ring-bearer.

FOR THE WEDDING and Roma Hall reception for 160 guests, the bride's mother chose a blue velvet bolero suit with floor-length skirt, and the bridegroom's mother wore a red velvet dress with lace trim.

The couple are living in Flint, where the bridegroom is a senior on the University of Michigan Campus there. The new Mrs. Wortz graduated from Plymouth High School and Central Michigan University, where she was affiliated with Delta Psi Kappa, an honorary fraternity for women in physical education.
