

Duo piano concert

Flavio Varani and Joyce Adelson will be presented in duo piano concert at Detroit's Metropolitan Methodist Church, 8000 Woodward, at 8 p.m. Friday. They will be performing Seven Variations on a Theme from "Mozart's Magic Flute" by Beethoven-Luboshutz, the Sonata in F minor by Brahms, Sonata for Two Pianos by Coullenc, and Polonaise by Saint Saens. The church is located five blocks north of Grand Blvd. on Woodward. Three sighted and supervised free parking lots are next to the church building. For ticket information, call 875-7070.

briefly speaking

● Scarab exhibition

The Scarab Club Gallery will open its annual silver medal all-media art exhibition featuring selected works from various Michigan-Ontario artists. The juried exhibition opens Sunday, March 4 and runs through the 29th. Gallery hours are weekdays, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and weekends, 2-5 p.m. There will be works for sale and admission. Parking is free. The gallery is at 217 Farnsworth, Detroit, behind the Detroit Institute of Arts.

● Schoolcraft concert

The Schoolcraft College Wind Ensemble, under the direction of Victor Bordo, will present an old-time band concert at 3 p.m. Sunday in the Schoolcraft College-Radcliff auditorium. Featured will be marches of Henry Fillmore, Julius Fucik, Jerry Blisk, Santiago Lopez and Edward Franko Goldman. The wind ensemble will also perform Joplin's "Trombone Rag," music from "Camelot" and other light musical numbers. The concert is free. Radcliff Center is at 1751 Radcliff, Garden City.

● Palette and Brush

Lily Dudgeon will be guest speaker at the Tuesday, Feb. 27 meeting of the Palette and Brush art club. Her topic will be "A Presentation on Monterey." For more information, call Sue Wilson, 651-5669.

● Photographer honored

Ruth Olson of Ruth Olson Photography in Westland, received merit awards for prints accepted and exhibited for print competition at the Tedrick Professional Photographic Extravaganza held recently at the Novi Hilton.

A Garden City High School graduate, she is a member of the Professional Photographers of America, Wedding Photographers International, the Professional Photographers of Michigan, the Detroit Professional Photographers Association and has been the photographer of the year with the Detroit association. ● Graduates' art show

Madonna College is holding a graduating senior art exhibit in the library wing, exhibit gallery, through Thursday, March 1. Artists' work on display is that of Shelly Buma, Kathleen Collins and Delphine Frank.

● Embroideries on display

"Cuadros de Pamplona Alta," an exhibition of contemporary embroideries from Peru, is on display in the Radcliff Center of the University of Michigan-Dearborn. The art exhibition will serve as the anchor for a winter series entitled "Voices of Latin America" on the U-M-D campus.

The exhibition features a number of arpilleras (embroideries) created by women in villages of Peru. There is no admission charge. For more information, call 593-5400.

● Daylily arts and crafts

Fifty artists and craftspeople from all sectors of the Midwest will participate in the arts and crafts fair Friday and Saturday, March 9-10 at Domino's Farms in Ann Arbor.
