

Traverse turns into Vegas

A Las Vegas party with games and prizes, traditional Irish music and luxury accommodations highlight a weekend package at Grand Traverse Resort. Dubbed the "Irish Sweepstakes Weekend," it is being offered March 16-18.

Guests participating in the "Irish Sweepstakes Weekend" package have their choice of two Irish theme parties. Friday night's party takes place in a resort ballroom where the all-Irish band "Jug o' Punch" will play. On Saturday night, the Trillium Nightclub is the place for a variety of Irish entertainment, from vocalists to dancers. Both parties feature specialty drinks and traditional green beer.

During the afternoon on Saturday, a Las Vegas-style party hosted by the Jaycees offers blackjack, roulette wheels, craps and bingo, with valuable prizes for the winners. Proceeds from the games will go to the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

Packages start at $130 per person based on double occupancy and include deluxe accommodations, admission to the Irish parties, brunch on Sunday, dinner one evening, breakfast or lunch on Saturday, gratuities on food and use of health club facilities, including swimming pools, whirlpools, saunas and the weight room.

Grand Traverse Resort, six miles northeast of Traverse City, is the Mobil Travel Guide's highest-rated resort in the Great Lakes states.

Tales live in 'old' West

to one of the state's smallest -- Hyattville, which counts around 300 residents. It was a bit of a culture shock.

"When we opened this, I was back there working in the kitchen," said Graves, "and I hear this jingle jangle, and I looked out and saw this big ole hat and a big scarf and chaps and spurs. It was a cowboy riding and he'd stopped in for pie and coffee. I looked out and looked again, and I just couldn't believe it."

Cowboys soon became a part of everyday life for the cafe owners. The annual cattle drives during which ranchers move their herds from winter to summer pasture took some getting used to, however.

"One day I was sitting in here," said Mrs. Graves, "and here's all the cows going right through downtown. It's amazing how much of the Old West is still here."

The cafe is one of the town's social centers. "The ranchers come in every morning for coffee, probably 13 or 14 of 'em," said Graves. "You can just tell the season by what they're talking about. In the spring, they're moving cattle, they're branding all the new calves. They have their brandings and all the ranchers help each other.

"When the branding's over they're going to hay, and pretty soon they'll start their first cutting. Then they'll go to pregnancy testing for the next year, and before you know it, it's time to have those calves, and they're up all night waiting for all of them to see if there's any problems."

Life in Hyattville isn't all work and chores, said Graves.

"Our big celebration here, they call it Old Timers Days, and it's the last weekend of July," she said. "People come from all over -- families and kids' kids' kids -- and they have a dance out here at the outdoor pavilion."

"Saturday they have a picnic -- the Old Timers Picnic -- and the ranchers provide the beef and everybody brings their own potluck. We have a roping contest here at the Caines Ranch, and the dance starts at nine. We stay open because there are a lot of older people that like to come in."

Hunting season is another busy time of the year. "From probably about the 15th of October until the first of November, this town just comes alive with people," said Mrs. Graves. "Hunters from places like Michigan, South Dakota, Missouri, Indiana and California."

The Hyattville Cafe is open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily, and is closed from November until May.

While off the beaten path Hyattville is not difficult to find -- just take Wyoming Highway 31 east from U.S. 16 and 10, the Big Horn Basin's main north and south route, and follow the road until the pavement ends.

The cafe is even easier to find, said Mrs. Graves. "The joke is we're right next door to the federal building -- that's the post office -- and across the street from the educational center," she said. "That's our school which has six children, one woman and one teacher."
