fantasy

touches of spring to show young visitor gazes at last year's City of Detroit Department of Recreation's colorful display.

bloom just days before the show," add-

In addition to the "Hall of Gardens," the 1990 builders show will feature entrance gardens sponsored by Standard Federal, First Federal and National Bank of Detroit. As people enter the show, they will hear fountains and other sounds of rushing water, see vibrant color and contrasting textures, and will smell the aroma of the first bloom of spring.

The "Hall of Gardens" and the entrance gardens are not only a treat for all of the senses, they are also a learning experience. Come ready to learn how the latest tredns in gardening and landscaping can turn your yard into a

