They're Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin B. Kolacz of Pershing Avenue, Livonia, announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Ann, to John W. Zirk Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Zirk of North Bellmore, N.Y. Both are first lieutenants in the U.S. Air Force. The bride-to-be, a graduate of Memorial School of Nursing, South Bend, Ind., is stationed in the hospital at Maxwell AFB in Alabama. Her fiancé is a graduate of St. John University, New York, and is studying at Auburn University. They plan to marry March 20.

MRS. RAINER SCHWAGER
(Marcia Dickerman)

Bride Designs Wedding Gown

Marcia Lee Dickerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence C. Dickerman of Farmington, became the bride of Rainer Schwager, formerly of Krefeld, Germany, in a ceremony performed by Judge Michael Hand in the Farmington courthouse Dec. 19.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Schwager of Germany.

The bride created her own floor-length gown of purple silk trimmed in gold and silver. Her flowers were lavender orchids on a base of Hawaiian ti leaves.

THE MAID of honor, Diane Kerridge, wore a lavender gown trimmed with glitter braid. Her flowers were lavender chrysanthemums with purple star flowers.

Michael Marontate of Detroit was best man. The bride's mother wore a purple and silver brocade floor-length gown with silver accessories.

The wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on St. Mary Court. In attendance were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Donna M. Cooper from Santa Monica, Calif., and her aunt, Mrs. L. R. Honerkamp from Playa del Rey, Calif.

THE COUPLE flew to Fort Lauderdale, Fla., for their honeymoon. They plan to live in St. Clair Shores.

The new Mrs. Schwager will continue to teach dancing at the Dickerman Dance Studio in Farmington. The bridegroom has traveled extensively with the LaSalle Machine and Tool Company.

Mink Trims Bridal Gown

Tour Is Feb. 9

White mink trimmed the bridal gown Carol Louisa Simpson wore when she exchanged marriage vows with Stephen Lee Babcock Jan. 8 in St. Scholastica Catholic Church in Detroit.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Simpson of Bloomfield Township, and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Babcock of Seneca Street, Redford Township, are parents of the bridegroom.

Officiating for the double-ring ceremony was the Rev. Richard Elmer, principal of Catholic Central High School, who was the bridegroom's teacher when he was a CC student. The bride's father gave her in marriage.

WHITE BROCADED SATIN fashioned the bridal gown that featured a high neckline and cathedral train. Mink hand-trimmed the long sleeves and also was used for the headpiece that held her elbow-length veil.

She carried a white fur muff mounted with miniature roses and baby mums in the shape of a cross.

MEMBERS of both families made up the wedding party.

The bride's aunt, Mrs. Leslie Martel of Sturbridge, Mass., was matron of honor, and her husband, Clarence Martel, was lector and soloist.

Bridesmaids were the bridegroom's sisters, Ann and Kathy Babcock.

MRS. STEPHEN LEE BABCOCK
(Carol Louise Simpson)

The bridegroom asked his father to be best man and the bride's brothers, Charles Simpson Jr. of Kalamazoo and Neil Simpson of Detroit, were groomsmen. Gary Simpson, cousin of the bride, was altar boy.

After a Florida honeymoon, the couple will live in Anchorage, Alaska, where the bridegroom, a sergeant in the U.S. Air Force, is stationed at Elmendorf AFB.

The new Mrs. Babcock is a graduate of Mercy College School of Nursing. Her husband graduated from Catholic Central and attended Michigan State University.

Diabetes Unit To Hear Talk

The Livonia Unit of the Michigan Diabetes Association will meet Wednesday, Feb. 10 at 8 p.m. in Mt. Hope Congregational Church, 3030 Schoolcraft, Livonia (between Middle Belt and Merriman).

Guest speaker will be Doris Baker, nurse clinician in diabetes, Wayne State University School of Medicine. Her subject will be "The Day To Day Management of Diabetes."

Miss Leubs Wed In Texas

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leubs of Farmington announce the marriage of their daughter, Georgia Ann, to William R. McCoy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCoy of Louisville, Ky.

The wedding took place Jan. 16 in Ascension Lutheran Church in El Paso, Texas, and a reception and dinner in Juarez, Mexico, followed the ceremony.

The new Mrs. McCoy is a teacher in El Paso. Her husband is an antique dealer there.

MRS. WILLIAM MCCOY
(Georgia Ann Leubs)

New Brides-To-Be
