This week's question:
What do you dislike most about Farmington or Farmington Hills?

We asked this question at the Drake's Shopping Plaza, Farmington.

'Not too much. Everything is perfect.'
— Zorvo Carlo
Farmington

'The traffic.'
— Joseph Bellisio
Farmington Hills

'Basically the traffic. The 25 mph as you come off and go down to Farmington Road. It should be at least 35 mph.'
— Arthur Dobelt
Farmington Hills

'The traffic. The congestion. Up there at I-696 turning to get off Grand River Ave.'
— Larry Bellisio
Farmington Hills

'Nothing I can really think of. Traffic is a lot heavier than it's ever been. I think the schools are good.'
— Judy Balmer
Farmington Hills

'I can't think of anything.'
— Hal Rappold
Farmington Hills

police/fire calls

Listed below are some of the Farmington-area police incidents, fire calls and court cases reported during the past week:

• marijuana seized

A baggie of marijuana was found at O.E. Dunsell Middle School, 32800 Orchard Lake Road, Friday apparently belonged to a student, who bought it for $20 from another student, according to a Farmington Hills police report.

• saloon fire

A deep fat fryer fire was out when firefighters arrived at a kitchen fire at J.W.'s Saloon, 31425 W. 12 Mile, at 11:10 a.m. Saturday.

No property damage resulted, according to a Farmington Hills fire report.

• traffic stop

Four Detroiters were ticketed or arrested during a traffic stop by Farmington Hills police at Grand River and Seven Mile in Redford Township Saturday night.

Officers first noticed a traffic violation at Grand River and Middlebelt at 9:15 p.m.

All four occupants of the car were ticketed for transporting open intoxicants in a motor vehicle when open bottles of malt liquor were found, police said.

The 38-year-old female driver also was charged with drunk driving. A 31-year-old man was ticketed for interfering with a police officer. Two others, a 41-year-old woman and a 28-year-old man, were arrested on outstanding felony warrants, police said.

• window smashed

Damage was estimated at $500 when a group of disorderly teens cracked a south exit window at McDonald's Restaurant, 24020 Orchard Lake Road, Saturday night, according to a Farmington Hills police report.

• bottle thrown

Damage was estimated at $1,000 when a bottle thrown from a westbound car smashed the windshield and a passenger window of a 1984 Mercedes eastbound on 14 Mile, east of Drake, at 12:05 a.m. Sunday.

The driver, a 33-year-old West Bloomfield man, was not hurt, according to a Farmington Hills police report.

• man hurt

An employee at the Shell station at 31529 Northwestern Highway was hurt when a tire exploded while he was filling it with air, throwing him back and onto the floor at 3:25 a.m. Sunday.

After exploding, the tire flew into the air and damaged a door and the windshield of a car on a hoist near where the employee was working.

The employee, a 23-year-old West Bloomfield man, injured an arm and a leg. Damage to the car was estimated at $400, according to a Farmington Hills police report.

• film taken

A man posing as an X-ray technician stole five rolls of X-ray film valued at $322 from the X-ray room at Sinal Health Center, 28500 Orchard Lake Road, at 3:15 p.m. Sunday.

He was admitted because he was wearing what appeared to be a genuine yellow X-ray badge.

The center's film supplier advised that this type of film larceny has occurred frequently at such businesses, according to a Farmington Hills police report.

• car taken
