

Farmington claims pair of city crowns

real important meet for the girls, but look at the time of year it is and the weather.

"It was good for us to see what some kids could do. It's nice to get off to a good start, but it's a long season ahead."

Junior Shelll Gaul and senior Jennifer Kiel were instrumental in the Farmington girls remaining city champions. The Falcons had 704 points, North 47 and Harrison 464.

Gaul had four first places, winning the high jump, 100 hurdles and 200 dash and anchoring the 800 relay team. Kiel won the 1600 run and anchored Farmington's other two first-place relays, the 3200 and 1600.

"That's the first time Gaul ever ran the open 200, and Kiel has never won the 1600 relay before," Brown said. "We're moving (Kiel) around and giving her a lot of speed work right now. She had the fastest quarter time on the relay."

"SHELLI DEFINITELY had a big day," he said. "She's a junior now and we're asking her to step it up another notch."

Kerri Owczarszak led a Farmington sweep of the shot put, and Susan Gibson was the best long jumper.

The Falcons also got second places from Carrie Letting (shot), Susan Davidson (hurdles), Dawn Montrose (hurdles) and Jenny Derwinski (3200).

In addition to Kiel, the 3200 relay consisted of Derwinski, Gretchen Clappison and Cheryl Casaroli. Carrie Maier and Amy Trunk were on the 800 and 1600 teams, with Kristy Bodary contributing in the 800 and Sherri Ylitalo in the 1600.

Lisa Rives had two of runner-up North's three first places, winning the 800 and 3200 runs. She was second in the 400, also. Adrienne McClellan was the discus winner.

Heather Conley led a near sweep in the 100 dash for the Hawks, who went 1-2-4 in that race with Conley winning it. Audra Cockerham won the 400 and sophomore Colleen Heinemann the 300 hurdles, and the nursemaid of Conley, Nicole Leo, Carrie Hennik and Niviv Hakim won the 400 relay.

"I thought we had some great performances," Harrison coach Mark Babcock said. "Heinemann wasn't even a varsity hurdler last year, so she's come on and done a nice job."

"You're only as good as your competition," Harrison coach Glenn

Brehnan said. "I feel RU is more our competition. (Both) have a lot of inexperienced players, and that made for a good game."

"I was very pleased with their performance Wednesday. It was good, basic soccer, though we need to work on our skills as the season goes along."

The Hawks played Salem without Kallen, sweater Molly Horton and striker Robyn LaHuffer, all of whom were injured.

Chiefs impressive in successful debut

Plymouth Canton will be a contender in Western Lakes Activities Association girls track and field this year.

The Chiefs demonstrated that at the outset of the 1990 season Thursday by winning a triangular meet at Livonia Stevenson.

Canton, which has won the Western Division dual-meet championship the last five years, scored 63 points to finish ahead of the host Spartans, who were runners-up in the WLA last year and are expected to be one of the powers this year, too.

Millford Lakeland won four events, including a pair of relays, but was lost with 44 points.

"It was an excellent start," Canton coach George Przygodski said. "It was good to see the way we measured up against a good team and program like Stevenson."

Overall, the times and distances from top to bottom were excellent for this early in the season and the weather conditions we had today."

Kim Gudeth had an outstanding day for the Chiefs "along with a lot of other kids," Przygodski said. Gudeth contributed to Canton victories in the 3200- and 1600-meter relays and won the open 400 run with a 1:04.5 time.

Amy Smith, Adrienne Garrow, Gudeth and Christie Saffron combined for a 1:04.07 time in the 3200 relay, and Monica Pellow, Jennifer Hartke, Kristy Brugger and Gudeth finished the 1600 in 4:32.8.

Canton's Jessica Soutter won the long jump, reaching a distance of 15.5', and freshman Stephanie Gray won the high jump at a height of 4-10.

The Chiefs had a strong finish, too. Besides winning the last relay, Michelle Deane won the 200 dash in 29.2

and Smith the 3200 run in 12:33.5.

"We scored in every event with the exception of the 400 and 800 relays where we botched handoffs," Przygodski said. "I was pleased with our overall strength and showing. It's early and we look to improve on (the handoffs)."

Stevenson won four events, with Jessam Martin winning two. She threw the discus 103-1 and the shot put 33-24. Lisa Christensen won the 300 hurdles with a time of 50.3, and Tracy Clark broke the ribbon in the 800 run, coming across in 2:43.0.

Lakeland's victories came in the 100 hurdles, 1600 run and sprint (400 and 800) relays.

Canton will host for a four-team meet Wednesday. The Chiefs will compete against Redford Bishop Borgess, Ypsilanti and Harper Woods Bishop Gallagher.

LIVONIA CLARENCEVILLE opened its girls track season Friday with a 65-45 victory over visiting Dearborn Heights Annapolis.

Roberta Wiggle had four first places for the Lady Trojans, including three in open events. She won the long jump (19-2), the 800 run (2:41.8) and the 100 dash (15.2).

She also ran the leadoff leg of the 1600 relay, combining with Tricia Wiggle, Michelle Sroks and Jennifer Nunery for a 4:49.0 time.

Tricia Wiggle and Nunery also had individual wins. Wiggle was first in the 400 run (1:10.9) and Nunery in the high jump (4-5). Clarenceville's Jennifer Loukargari was the 200 dash winner in 29.2.

The Lady Trojans won three of the relays. Chris Zupanic, Angela Mangers, Sue Tatom and Julie Stokler had the best 400 time at 1:00.02, and Tricia Wiggle, Nunery, Stokler and Loukargari finished the 800 relay in 2:01.0.
