Photography experts will be sponsoring group tours through Scotland this summer.

Photo enthusiasts are welcome to join the group June 24-July 7 and capture shots in the Western Highlands of Scotland. The group will begin the excursion in Girvan, Scotland, a fishing village and photographer's haven. The group will visit several castles and an abbey ruin. A visit to the Robert Burns Center will also be made while in the Girvan area where photographers can shoot the bridge over the River Doon (the Brigadoon of Lerner and Lowe fame).

The trip includes a drive through the valley of Glencoe where one night, while they sleep, the MacDonald clan was murdered by their guests, the Campbells. The next stop is in Ft. William, the gateway to the Western Highlands and in the morning the group will then head for the Isle of Skye.

Two days will be spent photographing Skye, the rugged island, home of the Clan MacLeod. A ferry will then take the group to the Isle of Lewis where they will spend two days taking shots among the 3,000-year-old Standing Stones of Callanish, which is considered to be the finest stone circle in Scotland.

Back to the mainland, the group will take a scenic route to Inverness and spend a free day to sightsee, shop and relax. After two days in Inverness, they will head south down the coastline of Loch Ness, keeping an eye out for Nessie.

The photo tour is $1,950 and includes round-trip airfare, all transportation within Scotland, 12 nights accommodations at bed and breakfast establishments, all breakfast and dinners and admission into historical sites.

The trip also includes instruction by photography experts such as Nancy Goff of Ann Arbor and Cheryl Hogue of Saline.

For more information and reservations for the trip, call (313) 973-1251 or (313) 429-0594.

St. Louis on the riverside

IT'S A PLEASANT walk through the rose garden, Japanese garden or English woodland. A bonus is the sculptures which grace the fountains (turned off during the winter) and grounds — including works by Alexander Calder, Henry Moore and Carl Milles.

We were lucky to travel during the off-season because even Tony's, one of only nine Mobil Guide five-star North American restaurants had room for us on a Friday night with only an hour's notice. If you go now, be sure to make reservations.

The 94th Aero Squadron adjacent to the airport with a perfect view of landings and takeoffs was a great place for Sunday brunch.

• Begin with airfare:

All year round, Southwest Airlines offers special rates to St. Louis. As long as you travel Monday through Thursday, tickets are $19 each way with a 21-day advance purchase. Or you can get a $48 round-trip ticket with a seven-day advance purchase or a $78 round-trip ticket with a one-day advance purchase. That's for unreserved seating on a number of conveniently scheduled one-stop flights.

• Rental cars:

When you arrive at Lambert-St. Louis International Airport on a Friday morning, there are at least a half dozen rental car companies. A midsize car is $11.95 per day plus 17 cents a mile at Budget, $21.95 and 100 free daily miles at National.
