Boning up

In a 90-minute training exercise March 30 at fire headquarters, the Farmington Hills Fire Department special emergency response team (SERT) boned up on putting a damaged 55-gallon drum with "hazardous materials" inside an overpack barrel. The intent was to practice containing and disposing of dangerous chemicals — in effect mitigating a potential hazard.

recreation news

Each week, the Farmington Hills Department of Special Services Recreation Division presents a synopsis of upcoming activities. For more information about programs, call the recreation office, 473-8570. For matters regarding city council agenda items, call Newsline at 476-3835.

SWIM LESSONS

Swimming instructions for beginner through advanced are offered at Harrison High School beginning Saturday, April 28. A $20 fee is required for the six-lesson program. Participants must be 38 inches tall at their chin height.

NATURE STUDY

Is it for the birds? From 10 a.m. to noon, Saturday, April 28, you will learn what serious challenges face our feathered friends that remain in our state during the winter. The class will be at the Spikes House in Heritage Park. Pre-registration is required.

GOLF LESSONS

Get back into the swing of things with some sound basic tips of golf. Six lessons will cover proper stance, grip and swing. Classes begin the week of April 30 at Novi Oaks Golf and Sport Center and meet twice a week, Monday, Wednesday or Tuesday and Thursday. Each class is 50 minutes. Scheduled lessons are for children, teens, adults and senior adults.

TENNIS LESSONS

Get a jump on summer and increase your tennis skills in this lifelong sport. Instruction covers forehand, backhand, serve, volley, ball control and court etiquette. Classes will meet for four Saturdays, beginning May 5 at Farmington High School. Classes are still open for teens from 10:30 a.m. till noon and adults from noon to 1:30 p.m. Tennis balls are provided. However, you should wear appropriate clothing and bring a tennis racket. Fee is $28.

KITE FESTIVAL

The skies over Heritage Park will be filled with kites of all shapes, sizes and colors from 1-4 p.m. Saturday, May 5. Festival activities will include kite contest, workshop on how to make your own kite, kite flying demonstrations and displays. The day is for people of all ages to enjoy flying your kite in a contest or just for fun.
