

Detroit Dance Collective is shown in "Other Places," choreography by Barbara Seifinger.

Dance Collective marks a decade

Dance concerts and reception at 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday, May 4 and 5, at the Little R. Jones-Johnson Theater on the Oakland Community College Royal Oak campus will mark the silver anniversary of the college and the 10th anniversary of the Detroit Dance Collective.

The Collective will premiere new works by artistic directors Barbara Seifinger and Paula Kramer performed to music by Erik Satie, the Beatles and Detroit jazz musician Ray Brinkley.

At a reception hosted by members of the Collective Friday evening, local and state legislators, leaders of arts organizations, past honorees and former members of the Collective will be involved.

A preconcert reception will be hosted by the staff of the college Saturday.

OCC and the Collective will honor Michigan Council for the Arts for its continued support of Michigan dance and dance artists.

James R. Gresh, student activities dean, will receive a tribute for his efforts on behalf of the Collective's residency on the Royal Oak campus, which is at 139 S. Washington, Royal Oak.

Italian Singers plan concert

The Italian Singers of Troy under the direction of Sergio Perrelli will present their first spring benefit concert at 8 p.m. Thursday, May 3, at the San Marino Club, 819 Beaver, west of John R. Troy.

The duration of $3 includes a wine-and-cheese afternoon. Checks should be made payable to the Italian Study Group of Troy, 15071, and mailed to Anna Raithe, 16644 Pittsford, Sterling Heights, 48316.

The Italian Singers of Troy are sponsored by the Italian Study Group of Troy and meet weekly at the Troy Community Center. The choir group has performed at numerous festivals, most recently at the 10th annual Festa Italiana sponsored by USC.

Perrelli, a bass, has performed leading roles in the major opera houses of the world. He is a Southfield resident who is conductor and artistic director of the Bel Canto Ensemble. For information, call Anna Raithe, 579-4574.
