

Bowman promoted at Schostak

Robert Bowman has been named general manager for the Macabees Office Center, which is owned, managed and leased by Schostak Brothers, the Southfield-based real estate development, management and commercial/industrial company.

Bowman has been with Schostak Brothers for 18 years, most recently as operations manager for Wondersland Mall, Laurel Park Place and Lakewood Shopping Center.

neering and planning firm of Harley Ellington Pierce Yeo Associates has named four new assistant division directors.

They are Daniel Meloche, assistant director in electrical engineering; Michael Proctor, assistant director of construction; Ken Stamps, assistant director of site planning; and Stephen Sussman, assistant director of interior architecture.

Ghafari Associates of Livonia, an architectural/engineering firm, has added facilities management to its services under the direction of Patrick Smithbauer, executive vice president.

In other moves, Thomas R. Woodbury of Canton Township has assumed the newly created position of team manager for facilities management services. He went to Ghafari from Michigan National Corp. Maureen Dritsan, business development manager, will lead marketing for facilities management. She was formerly marketing director with Walbridge Aldinger and was with R.E. Dailey & Co.

Cushman & Wakefield of Troy has been named the leasing agent by Vantage Systems of Farmington Hills to find tenants for a 50,000-square-foot commercial development to be built on two acres on Big Beaver between Crooks and Livermore.

Joseph DiRado, president and owner of Brickscope Inc. of Northville, has received the young entrepreneur award from the U.S. Small Business Administration.
