

Mercy dominates Ventures

Farmington Hills Mercy, thanks to a first half goal from Junior Dana Lehmkuhl, defeated host Madison Heights Bishop Foley 2-1 Thursday.

The Marlins dominated all phases of the game, mustering 20 shots on goal in the Catholic League contest compared to just four for the Ventures. Renee Larabell made three saves for the Marlins.

"Our midfield played real well," Mercy coach Henry Kilmes said, citing the effort of midfielder Courtney Lyons.

A pair of freshmen, halfback Carrie Dziadosz and sweeper Beth Ziobara, also played well, according to Kilmes.

Mercy got its second goal on a penalty shot 15 minutes into the second half.

The state-ranked Marlins improve their record to 7-0-3 overall and 3-0-2 in the Catholic League.

Mercy played without the services of Carrie Bowler, who was sidelined with a sprained right foot.

JULIE DUGAN's goal in the second half Wednesday enabled Farmington to defeat Livonia Franklin 2-1 in a Western Lakes Activities Association crossover game.

The Falcons, 7-1 overall, received a first-half score from Margaret Martin.

Farmington goalies Christine Soper (first half) and Mandy Cannon (second half) had an easy time as the Falcons outshot the Patriots 37-2.

NIKKI JOHNSON, Kristy Thurston and Michelle Brainin each tallied two goals Wednesday to lead Livonia Churchill to a triumph over host Farmington Hills Harrison, 10-0.

The Chargers (6-0-2) also got goals from Christine Garry, Kristi Szymanski, Erin Stachurski and Laurie Place. Monica Cervi was in goal for No. 1-ranked Churchill.

Adle's goaltending key to North win

The quality goaltending of Leanne Adle spurred North Farmington's girls soccer team to a 3-2 win Wednesday against visiting Walled Lake Western.

"She (Adle) is outstanding each game," North coach Chris Galezky said. "She saves so many goals. I don't think anybody can compare with her in Michigan."

Galezky feels that Adle compares favorably with players he saw in his playing days.

"I played five years of pro soccer in Poland, and she is at least a college-level talent in Poland," he said.

Cheryl Waller tallied two goals against Western to lead the Raiders, 3-4-1 overall. Lisa Handalak had the other North score. The score was 4-0 at the half.

The Raiders outshot Western 14-11.

On Friday, North lost to host Livonia Stevenson, 6-0. Lori Godlewski scored three goals, and Ragen Coyne tallied twice for the Spartans, 4-3-1.

Stopper Sarah Alspecter and sweeper Kelly Kershaw played solid games on defense for North. Other top players for North included Adle and Waller, according to Galezky.

"Stevenson has a quality team," Galezky said. "All the goals were quality goals. In the second half, we put more pressure on them and played almost like even teams."
