police/fire calls

Listed below are some of the Farmington-area police inci-dents, fire calls and court cases reported during the past week:

• GUNS TAKEN

Two rifles, four shotguns and a semiautomatic revolver valued at $790 were reported stolen from a gun cabinet in a house on the 21000 block of Middlebelt, Farmington Hills, May 14-15.

DRIVER FLEES

● DRIVER FLEES

A man thought to be in his 30s eluded seven Farmington Hills and Redford Township police officers in pursuit of him after an aborted traffic stop in southeast Farmington Hills Thesday.

Farmington Hills officer Matt Koehn, in a fully marked patrol car, tried to stop the suspicious car on Grand River near Pearl but the driver continued southbound.

The driver pulled between two buildings in Redford Township, jumped out, scaled a fence and ran through back yards, eluding capture.

His car was linepounded, according to a Farmington Hills police report.

BILL FOUND

BILL FOUND
A Livonia woman found a $100 bill on the floor of the Clark station at 22145 Farmington Road Tuesday.
She turned it over to the station manager, who turned it over to the police, according to a Farmington Department of Public Safety report.

KNIFE SEIZED

• KNIFE SEIZED

A Detroit man faces a concealed weapons charge after a 2½-inch, double-edged, folding knife was found in his glovebox during a traffic stop Wednesday in southeast Farmington Hills, police said.

The 31-year-old also faces a co-caine possession charge in connection with the discovery of a vial containing powder cocaine in a camera case on the backscat, according to a Farmington Hills police report.

HOUSE FIRE
 Damage was estimated at $2,000 when an accidental fire broke out in the basement of a house on the 31700 block of 11 Mile Wednesday. The homeowner doused the fire with a garden hose but required treatment for smoke inhalation. Damage was confined to the base-ment.

ment.
The fire was caused by the improper disposal of smoking materials in a trash container, according to a Farmington Hills fire report.

GUN FOUND

A cleaning woman found a .38-cal-iber revolver on the floor of a room at the Knights Inn, 37527 Grand Riv-er, Thursday.

at the Knights inn, 3002, Country er, Thursday.
The gun had five live rounds, according to a Farmington Hills police report.

ALCOHOL SEIZED
 Three Farmington Hills teenagers were found with beer, whe coolers and vodka in their possession during a traffic stop at Drake and Grand River Thursday, according to a Farmington Hills police report.

• BOY SHOT

A 12-year-old Farmington Hills boy was shot in the face with a BB while riding his blke on a path near Westcott Crescent Circle Friday night. He suffered an injury to his right

He suffered an myer, check and eye.

Officers were trying to determine if two teens shooting a BB gun at a tin can in the area earlier were involved in the shooting, according to a Farmington Hills police report.

No one was hart when an attic fire broke out in a one-story house on the 35000 block of Nottingham Knoll, near 14 Mile and Northwestern Highway, In orthwest Farmington Hills Friday night.

The fire was heavlest in the attic portion above the kitchen. The cause continues to be investigated. No dollar estimate was available, according to a Farmington Hills police report.

76

off

-drapery boutique

tsarehouse outlet
12119 tevas
Between Plymouth Rd, and the Jettries Fwy. Livania, Mi

In-Store Sidewalk Sale

warehowe outlet only

Mon. thru fat., 9:30 a.m. to 5:30p.m.

to

REGULAR PRIOR

@ Twice a week is better @ Twice a week is better @

Kids' extra-mile efforts cited

Continued from Page 1

Harder helped prepare a Thanksgiving meal at the Rescue Mission in Detroit and will soon as standard to be the second of the second Mission in Detroit and will soon as standard to be second of the second of the second of the women and children. Se is a membent, Livonia. While in Chicago, Harder and other youths helped an inner city church. She has work-helped an inner city church. She has work-helped an inner city church. She has work summer camp in Poland.

"We do it to show others how much God loves us and to show our love for God," Harder said.

• Rebecca Joy Hoyt, Harrison
High junior, nominated by Chara maine Raquas, a Harrison teacher.
Through Ward Evangelical Church, Livonia, Hoyt has organized an inner-city vacation Bible school and performed at Boysvilie, a center for troubled teen in Detroit, in work. In Florida, she worked with the children of Cuban refuges in Jamalca by day and helped rebuild a hurricane-ravaged Christian in Jamalca by day and helped rebuild a hurricane-ravaged Christian center by night. This summer, she will work at a children's camp in Poland.

"I did it for God and to show God's love for us," Hoyt said.

ng. "I did it for God and to show God's love for us," Hoyt said.

Sarah Jane McIntosh, Harrison High senior, nominated by Charmaine Ragusa, a Harrison teacher.

McIntosh is described as "coura-geous and responsible" in her ser-vice to her own family. The second of five children, at age 8, McIntosh lost her father to a sudden heart at-tack. Distraught, her mother removed the children from school, keeping them home for the next five years. For the next 18 months, after term other was diagnosed with cancer in 1986, McIntosh and her older sister caref for their mother and assumed all household responsibilities, including paying bills. When their mother died, the family was broken up with McIntosh being sent into foster care and younger siblings placed with relatives.

McIntosh returned to school. She now shares an apartment with her sister wills we sking on bourn a weight freshman, nominated by Adele R. Emmer, Bottsford General Hospitalities given to mea," McIntosh said. "I have little sisters and brothers and I have little sisters and brothers and I have little sisters and brothers and I have little sisters and brothers and them."

Jennifer Seymour, North

want to be a good influence on Marquis Acting company in Norththem."

• Jennifer Seymour, North
Farmington High senior, nominated by David Finney, chairman of the history and social studies department.

While on her way to work as a medical assistant, Seymour arrived medical assistant, Seymour arrived Papo, FYA teen recreation chair.

Umlah has been a volunteer staff-in-training at the FYA summer ac-tivities center for almost a year. He has worked for FYA middle school me."

• Lauren Weary, a Farmington
High senior, nominated by Richard Swan, a biology teacher.

Since January, Weary has been a volunteer tutor for a first-grade leukemia patient at Flanders Elementary, teaching him reading, math, spelling and creative writing.

"With helping him, I learned a lot about not only him as a person, but also about leukernia and bow devas-tating this disease really is," Weary said.

Chief lauds student volunteers

Continued from Page 1

Continued from Page 1
Flanagan spoke about doing volun-teer tutoring in his undergraduate work at the University of Notre Dame in South Bend, Ind. Through-outh in a neighborhood study help program. His last two years there, he tutored illiterate adults. The fact this college gave credit for commuty service played a part in his deci-sion to enroll.

"It made me understand what a difference one person can make and got me where I am today." Flanagan said.
"WE TEND to look at hours of service, 100-200 hours, during the past year," said Farmington Hills city councilman Terry Sever, who chaired the FYA recognition committee.

chaired the FVA recognition committee.

The audience featured state and local officials: Donn L Wolf, Oakland County commissioner: Susan Renpels, Farmington school board memnels, Farmington school board mempels, Farmington school board memschool board president; Robert Leadman and William Costick, city managers of Farmington and Farmand County probate Kristlen Ritter and Deborah Hyde, Kristlen Ritte

ington Hills, respectively; Shirley Richardson, Farmington mayor, Nancy Bates, Aldo Vagoozil and Larry Lichtman, Farmington Hills council members; Robert Cross, Oakland County Youth Assistance director, Frank Lauhoff, Farmington public safety director, Joan E. Young, Oakland County probate judge.

$5.00 Minimum

Gunman robs man in garage

Continued from Page 1

Continued from Page 1
The gumman stack the weapon in the man's chest, ordered him to put his hands on the steering wheel and demanded his watch, wallet, keys and garage door remote control. The wallet contained $10 and credit cards among other items.
While fleeing, the robber closed the garage door behind him. It's not known if he left on foot or by car. He was last seen running east on Slocum.

The gunman is described as white, age 35 to 40, 5-9 to 5-10, 180-200 pounds, with dark hair and a stocky build. He was wearing a navy ski mask with red lining, navy work clothes and a navy, quilted, liner-style jacket.

Goss didn't know if the victim was randomly targeted. "It's too early to tell. We don't have enough details yet," he said Friday afternoon.

HE HAIR COMPANY

Spring Special SETS 56

538-1044 27716 7 Milo Rd., 2 Blocks West of Inkstor Mon.-Sat. 8 a.m.-6 p.m. E-pires 6-1-90

Will Iron Any Type of Clothing

FREE Delivery & Pick-up

Call......853-2162

School Hours 7:30 a.m.-5:30 p.m. Beginning our 8th Year at 33424 Oakland Ave. (In the Salem United Church of Christ) Downtown Farmington

Sherry Bass - Director

RHEUMATOID ARTHRITIS IN THE BLOOD BUT NOT THE BONES

BUT NOT THE BONES

The theumatoid factor test reveals whether you have an anibody in your blood associated with intomatoid arthritis. Initially, investigators believed that this anibody infected the presence of rheumatoid arthritis; subsequent experience associated with rough the presence of theumatoid arthritis; subsequent experience assowed that this belief was wrone, Many people are rheumatoid factor positive because of past infections, previous us a dirugs to treat hypertension or depression, or because of past use of configuratory eagents, in people over age forty, incumatory and the properties of the proposed of the properties of the proposed or the proposed of the properties of the proposed or the properties of the

STIHL

These are cone tapered (3" butt, 2" top)

20' exposed pole heightQuality aluminum construction

3' x 5' nylon flag included

Complete with gold ball, halyard & cleat

INSTALLED for only $365 + tax

VISA & MASTERCARD ACCEPTED

A patient program of the Carbonic University Codespored As

