TV Today

By Dave Lovett

Some TV stars have found the answer in Europe. One week TV stars have been running to Europe to capital- ize on the red- ous, green west- ern girls in utation costumes and what about secrets in German spy stories. European producers are on the look-out for ex- otic stars whose show- ings are doing badly. One day they've left America's shores. For- unately, these life- abroad can be comforta- ble. But a villain and a hero can be made in a matter of hours. Salary is usually much less than Holly- wood pay, however. It would pay, however, to earn $25,000 per pic- ture. But if an actor makes three or four pic- tures a year abroad, he's still making a darn good
