

San Diego Is Couple's New Home

San Diego, Calif., is home for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Matcinkiewicz following their wedding Jan. 9 in the Memorial Church of Christ, Livonia.

The bride is the former Judy Ann Wainwright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wainwright, of Livonia. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Matcinkiewicz, of Livonia.

The Rev. Max Copeland officiated for the ceremony followed by a reception for 150 guests at Lof's in Plymouth. After a wedding trip to Canada, the couple left for San Diego where the bridegroom is stationed with the U.S. Navy.

FOR THE DOUBLE-RING ceremony, the bride wore a princess-style gown with a bustle and train. She carried a cascade arrangement of orchids and stephanotis.

Honor maid was Rosemarie Crawford who was gowned in purple and carried orchids and heather. The bridesmaids, Janet Reilly and Nancy Wainwright, were in avocado green and also carried bouquets of orchids and heather.

Best man was Tom Ryan. Ushers were Robert Spriggs and Robert Reilly. The bride is a Stevenson High School graduate and was an RN at Sinai Hospital in Detroit. The bridegroom is a Bentley High School graduate.

MRS. ROBERT KREITSCH
(Sharon Harrison)

Newlyweds Write Own Nuptial Vows

Sharon Harrison and Robert Kreitsch wrote the vows that united them in marriage in a Dec. 26 ceremony in St. Matthew United Methodist Church, Livonia.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harrison of Livonia and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Kreitsch of Plymouth.

The Rev. Haldon Ferris performed the double-ring ceremony. Dick Glaser and Marilyn Wykes read from the scriptures.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her father, the bride wore a satin gown designed by Christos of Galina and featuring peau d'ange lace and pearl trim. A satin rose held her veil, and she carried a cascade of June bells and stephanotis with a white orchid in the center.

Nancy Williamson, as maid of honor, wore a green velvet gown and carried white snowball mums. The bridesmaids, Diane Achterkirch, Hilda Dipman, Karen Gunter, sister of the bridegroom, and Nancy Nozera, wore similar gowns in red.

ASSISTING the bridegroom were John Moss as best man and Larry Barlow, Jim Gunter, Wayne Stotter and George Winters as ushers.

For the wedding and church hall reception, Mrs. Harrison chose a brown and beige velvet and chiffon. Mrs. Kreitsch was in orchid chiffon.

The couple will live in Ann Arbor where the bridegroom, a graduate of Michigan State University, will continue his first year of medical school at the University of Michigan. The new Mrs. Kreitsch will complete her MSU senior year as a guest student at U-M.

Engaged
Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth G. McCauley of Bay City announce the engagement of their daughter, Ann, to Thomas R. Wolfe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Wolfe of Westland. Both are employees of the municipal engineering division of the Westland Public Services department. An April wedding is planned.

Klos-Craig Rites Held By Candlelight

Gayle Craig and Glenn Charles Klos were united in marriage in a Jan. 15 candlelight ceremony in SS. Peter and Paul Catholic Church in Detroit.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Craig of Walled Lake, formerly of Livonia. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Klos of Joy Road, Westland, are parents of the bridegroom.

Officiating for the nuptial mass was the Rev. Adolph Redwick, and the bride's father gave her in marriage.

THE BRIDE'S empire gown, designed by Priscilla of Boston, was of candlelight peau de soie with re-embroidered alencon lace trimming the bodice, high, ruffled collar and skirt.

MRS. GLENN KLOS
(Gayle Craig)

Her illusion veil swept to a chapel train, and her flowers were white orchids and carnations with baby red roses. Four attendants wore floor-length red velvet empire gowns with ivory lace trim. They carried white ostrich-feathered muffs with white hats to match.

MRS. BONNIE SOCALL, the bride's sister, was maid of honor, and the maid of honor was Janice Klos, sister of the bridegroom. Bridesmaids were Linda Coghurn and Eileen Klos.

Gerald Klos, twin brother of the bridegroom, was his best man. Seating the guests were Stanley Przybylowicz, cousin of the bridegroom, Derrick Higham and Douglas Dawson. Michael Socal, the bride's nephew, carried the rings.

Both mothers chose dress and coat ensembles. Mrs. Craig's in pink silk and Mrs. Klos' in aqua.
