A graduate of North Farmington High School, he is a junior majoring in electrical engineering and has been active with campus radio station WGGL-FM at Michigan Tech.

They're Sick

The problem drinker costs America millions of dollars. Public agencies spend $20 million to care for alcoholics, mental hospitals spend $30 million, and the cost to families and employers is incalculable. The alcoholic is a sick person and can be helped. Help him — or her.

OLS Holds Mardi Gras

FARMINGTON
Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic High School's second annual Mardi Gras will be kicked off this weekend, Feb. 13 and 14.

The event will again feature an assortment of booths to entertain all local carnival buffs.

In addition to the games, there will be a boutique, a bake sale and movies for the youngsters.

Hite Honored

FARMINGTON
Robert Hite, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hite of Glencastle Dr., Farmington, has been named to the dean's list for the fall semester at University of Detroit. He is a sophomore majoring in biology and preparing for dental school.

The Marvolous Carmodini promises to astound all ages with his spellbinding magic. The highlight of the Mardi Gras will be the Saturday night dance in the OLS gym at Power and Shawassee.

The Mardi Gras will draw to a close Sunday night, Feb. 14, with winners receiving such prizes as a Honda Mini-trail bike, three-piece luggage set and other items.

Most of the events will be held in the Sorrow's parish hall at Shawassee and Power Roads from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Weller Achieves

John A. Weller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Weller of 28754 Kirkside Lane, Farmington, has been named to the dean's list for the 1970 fall semester at John Brown University in Silvan Springs, Ark.

Farmington Socially Speaking

My notes to be incorporated into a column for this week are like a jigsaw puzzle with several pieces missing. Memory, as you know, doesn't improve with time and it's that time for me where memory is a thing of the past.

There were "between the lines" memory notes that I was sure would be remembered! So much has happened since the notes that all that was to be remembered is lost forever.

JOLLY GREEN GIANT was the annual "husbands night" potluck dinner sponsored by the Farmington Musical in the Nardin Park Methodist Church.

Dinner chairman Mrs. Harold Freeman and her committee (Mrs. Harvey Baird, Mrs. Wilfred Strey, Mrs. James Clements, Mrs. James Roberts, Mrs. Paul Hennis and Mrs. Paul Barber) came up with some clever Jolly Green Giant decorations that added to the event.

Table centerpieces were contained in Green Giant vegetable cans with plastic vegetables (carrots, asparagus, corn, etc.) coinciding with the label on the container. Cream and sugar for the coffee was contained in Green Giant vegetable cans also. And the touch of the Jolly Green Giant's footsteps was accomplished by the zany foot rugs.

MRS. ROBERT (IRENE) WINNIE of Craftsbury Road, the one who originated the Farmington Musicales, was honored with a corsage and given a scroll on which was printed "A Tribute to Irene," a poem that starts with "She gathered us together..." written by a Musicale member, Mrs. June Rado of Orchard Lake Road.

Some of the members and guests attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Archie Malette, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Truitt, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tomchak, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Crook, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Rado, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Daner, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Barber, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Strey, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. William Clogg, Mr. and Mrs. Bob O. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Bob V. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Don Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bigelow, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Cornell and others.

Harold and Doris Freeman, of Doreen Drive, were in "ski heaven" during the weekend of Jan. 29. Heaven or not it was mighty cold in Nub's Nob and the Highlands. Doris said she hugged the fires quite a bit that weekend. They stayed at Harbor Springs where the snow was at least five feet on the flats and eight to 10 feet in drifts. They were accompanied by friends, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rosseau, of St. Clair Shores.
