Good recipes usually turn up at good parties — and this was a good party.
The occasion was the 35th wedding anniversary of Evelyn and Tom Burke of 2199 Andover, Southfield. The hosts were their daughters and their husbands, Sheri and Dick Kennedy and Mary Kay and Henry Andries.
The guests included old friends from the Burkes' University of Detroit and Marygrove days and a few Johnny-come-latelies who had known them only 30 years or so.

YOUNG BRIDES of the '70s take heart. If you have doubts about your ability to ever master the culinary arts, there is hope. Some day you too may be an accomplished cook.

From one who remembers a young Evvie Burke's trials and tribulations in the kitchen and saw her blossom into the gourmet class, it can be done.

There were discouraging moments along the way. Like the time she put the coffee cake to rise on the radiator under the kitchen sink. We both had radiators under our kitchen sinks in those days. It was very upsetting to have the coffee cake more than "double in bulk" and firmly attach itself to the bottom of the sink.

But enough of this gloomy reminiscing. Here are the recipes:

MARY KAY'S DIP
(For raw vegetables)
2-oz. jar of Bovril or B-V
1 pt. Miracle Whip
8-oz. cream cheese
1 small onion, finely chopped
Mix all together. It's delicious with cauliflower flowerets, carrot sticks, celery and green pepper strips.

SWEET AND SOUR MEATBALLS
1 lb. hamburger
1 t. minced onion
1 bottle chili sauce
1 3 c. grape jelly

Mix onion with hamburger and shape into small balls. You should have about 30 balls. Heat jelly with the chili sauce in a large frying pan. Bring to a boil and add the meatballs. Simmer gently for 30 to 40 minutes. Do not stir. Serve in a chafing dish. May be made a day ahead of time.

BEVIE'S STROGANOFF
1 T. flour
1 1/2 lb. beef sirloin, cut in 4-inch strips
2 T. butter
1 c. thinly sliced mushrooms
1/2 c. chopped onion
1 clove garlic, minced
2 T. butter
3 T. flour
1 small can tomato paste
1 can beef broth
1 c. sour cream
2 T. cooking sherry

Combine flour and salt; dredge meat in mixture. Heat skillet, then add two tablespoons butter. When melted add the sirloin strips and brown quickly, flipping meat to brown on all sides. Remove meat from skillet and add the mushrooms; brown them, then remove from skillet. Add the rest of the butter to the pan drippings. When melted, blend in three tablespoons flour. Now slowly pour in cold broth. Cook, stirring constantly until mixture thickens. No lumps. Return browned meat and mushrooms to skillet. Stir in sour cream and sherry; heat briefly. Serve over rice or noodles.

PARTY CELERY DIP
1 pound cream-style cottage cheese
1 teaspoon seasoned salt
1/2 cup finely chopped celery
2 tablespoons finely chopped fresh chives
1/2 cup minced green pepper
1/2 cup finely grated carrot
Celery sticks
Combine cottage cheese and seasoned salt; beat with electric mixer. Stir in chopped celery, carrots, green pepper and chives. Serve as a dip with celery sticks. Makes about 2 1/2 cups dip.
