

Burger King crowned with landscaping award

Burger King restaurant, 29206 Orchard Lake Road, nabbed the 1990 Farmington-Farmington Hills Chamber of Commerce Award for its beautification and landscaping efforts.

The award was presented Oct. 18 during the annual Farmington Hills Beautification Awards ceremony at city hall. In addition to Burger King, other businesses, organizations, religious institutions, schools, apartments and municipal buildings were honored with plaques or certificates.

"Our goal is to recognize and applaud all those places in Farmington Hills that do something special in landscaping," said Lincoln Avery, Farmington Hills Beautification Commission chairman.

"It may be a small bed of annuals, or it may be large areas of elaborately planted flowers. They all contribute toward making our city look so attractive. We congratulate the winners and look forward to seeing even more next year."
