

Achievers

ELIZABETH CLOUTIER and MAN HOURAN were nominated for Amicare Home Healthcare's Service Excellence Recognition.

Cloutier is an accounting associate and Houran is a receptionist at Amicare Home Healthcare.

Nominees for the award have distinguished themselves in demonstrating themselves in Amicare's stated values: caring service, excellence, respect for human dignity, individual responsibility, community centeredness and financial responsibility.

GEORGE GILBERT of Farmington Hills was named vice president, Engine Products Group at Simpson Industries, Inc.

In his new position Gilbert will have overall management responsibility for the Engine Products Group including manufacturing, human resources, product and process engineering, quality assurance, customer service and operations accounting. Gilbert is a member of the Society of Automotive Engineers and the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

GABE CARRILLO of Farmington Hills was appointed executive vice president and manager of operations of Campbell Development Co. of Southfield.

Carrillo has degrees in architectural engineering, civil and structural engineering and engineering management from Purdue University and National University, Columbia.

He is a registered professional engineer in several states including Michigan and holds a general contractor license in California.

HENRY NICKOL of Farmington Hills was elected a vice president of Ford's Motor Company's North American Automotive Operations.

Nickol joined Ford in 1983 as a trainee with engineering staff. He has held a number of senior positions in engineering management in the Product Development Group, Car Engineering, Chassis Division and Engine Division. He became engineering director, Powertrain Engineering, in 1983; general manager of Engine Division in 1984, and general manager of Powertrain Operations in 1988.

Items for Farmington Achievers may be mailed to the Farmington Observer, 21808 Farmington Road, Farmington 48336, or dropped off at the newspaper office.
