CHILDREN'S WINTER ACTIVITIES

Children on winter break can choose from plenty of fun-filled activities.

Whether it's a visit to the Detroit Zoo, or a trip to Henry Ford Museum, families can find lots to do in the metropolitan area. Some low-cost, or free, activities are offered even closer to home.

Most museums and other attractions will be closed Christmas and New Year's Day, and some will close on other days as well. Information is subject to change, so making a phone call before heading out is a good idea.

These activities should keep youngsters and their parents occupied until it's time to go back to school. They're also a great way for families to enjoy time together.

ART INSTITUTE

A variety of activities are planned at the Detroit Institute of Arts, 5200 Woodward in Detroit.

"Breakfast With Santa" will be 9:45 a.m. Wednesday through Saturday in the Kresge Court. Visits — for believers of all ages — will continue through Saturday, Dec. 22. Ticket price is $7 and advance reservations are required. Weekend visitors may enjoy a "Snack With Santa" noon to 3:30 p.m. Saturdays. No reservations required.

The December line-up features special Detroit Youththeatre performances Saturdays. They include: "Christmas 'Round the World" on Dec. 8, a magical international sleigh ride for those age 5 and older; "Folia Navidad" on Dec. 15, a holiday dance and music extravaganza for those age 5 and older; and "Holly Folly Christmas" on Dec. 22, with Ken Schultz as the elf who dazzles the audience with a variety-packed performance for those age 5 and older.

Youtheatre tickets are $5, and show times are 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. in the DIA Auditorium. For ticket information, call 833-2323.

The art institute's Prince Street Players will present their musical version of "The Emperor's New Clothes" Wednesday through Sunday, Dec. 26-30. Children must be 5 or older to attend, and tickets are $5. Performances will be 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. Dec. 27-29, 2 p.m. only Dec. 26 and Dec. 30.

The art institute offers self-guided family tours, including the "DIA Discovery Tour" and "Do You See What I See?" Information is available in the Farnsworth Lobby.

An archeological scavenger hunt, "The Mystery of the Five Fragments," is offered 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Wednesday through Sunday. Kits for the scavenger hunt can be checked out in the Rivera Court.

For more information, call the DIA, 833-7900.

HENRY FORD MUSEUM

A holiday celebration, "Traditions to Treasure," is planned at Henry Ford Museum & Greenfield Village in Dearborn. Special displays and demonstrations will continue through Jan. 1, except for Christmas Day.

The centerpiece for the museum celebration will be a towering Christmas tree decorated with cookies, candy, dolls, stuffed animals and small toys. The museum concourse area will feature a fantasy Lionel train layout.

Toy trains — including one equipped with a tiny camera that broadcasts an "engineer's eye view" — will wind their way through a gingerbread village. Visitors will be able to watch gingerbread houses in the making.

Several craft activities are planned for children. Youngsters will be able to make such items as a gingerbread boy bookmark, snowflake ornament and angel ornament. Families can leave a little bit of their own history at the museum by contributing photos of their celebrations to the holiday photo wall. Family photos will become part of the archive.

Santa Claus will preside over the merriment in the museum. Many holiday customs and traditions from the past will be displayed at the historic Greenfield Village buildings. At the Town Hall Activities Center, children will find holiday crafts to keep them busy.

The Henry Ford Museum Theater will present "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" on Saturdays through Dec. 22, with additional performances Wednesday through Sunday, Dec. 26-30. Two matinees will be staged each show date, the first at 11 a.m. and the second at 2:30 p.m., except Dec. 16 and Dec. 30 when only a 2:30 p.m. show will be performed. Audience members will be able to meet the characters after each performance. For ticket information, call 271-1620.

Hours at Henry Ford Museum & Greenfield Village are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Separate admission is charged for the museum and village. For more information, call 271-1620.

JEWISH CENTER

The Jewish Community Center, Maple at Drake in West Bloomfield, has planned activity days for kindergartners through sixth graders. Each "Winter Day" will feature a special theme, plus activities in the gym and pool.

Session will be 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Dec. 24, 26, 27, 28 and 31, and

FOR KIDS ON THE FAST TRACK.

Think fast. For more than twenty years, CB skiwear has been designed by racers. And worn by some of the fastest people on the mountain. Including some very smart kids.
