

Plan blends formal, informal

The main floor of this plan incorporates formal and informal living areas as well as the luxury master bedroom suite.

The second floor stair is at the rear of the plan and allows passage for family members who wish to avoid interrupting guest activities in the house. The family room is a full two stories high, and the sun deck is accessible from the family room. A private sunken deck is accessed from the master bedroom suite, in which a tray ceiling is featured.

The kitchen is square, allowing space for an island workspace unit. Informal meals are served in the separate room adjacent to the laundry area and accessible to the sun deck.

Plan 3515 includes 3,596 square feet of heated space and is drawn to meet FHA and VA requirements. For more information, write W.D. Farmer, P.O. Box 450025, Atlanta, Ga. 30345.

IN TODAY'S JOB MARKET EMPLOYERS WANT MORE THAN THE SAME OLD B.S.

Every year, over a million new college graduates put on their new blue suits and go job hunting.

All of them have degrees. Most of them have hearty handshakes. But very few have what employers want most -- practical work experience.

That's why there's a nationwide program called Cooperative Education. It allows students to alternate studies at the college of their choice with paid, practical work experience in the career of their choice.

So Co-op Education students graduate with more than a degree. They have practical knowledge. And a competitive advantage in today's crowded job market. And that sure beats trying to B.S. your way into a job.

Co-op Education

You earn a future when you earn a degree.
