

upcoming things to do

- AT PALACE
Chart-toppers Bell Biv DeVoe, Johnny Gill, Keith Sweat and Monie Love will perform at 8 p.m. Friday, Jan. 18, at the Palace of Auburn Hills. Tickets at $25 reserved are on sale at the Palace box office and all Ticketmaster outlets. Tickets may be charged by calling 645-6666. Ricky Bell, Michael "Biv" Blivins and Ronnie DeVoe — better known as Bell Biv DeVoe — are former members of the '80s supergroup New Edition. Featuring hip-hop, rap and singing, their double-platinum debut LP "Poison" has been on Billboard's Top 100 Albums chart for more than 35 weeks and currently stands at No. 15. For more information, contact the Palace at 377-8600.
- COMEDY COMING
St. Dunstan's Guild of Cranbrook presents "Kiss Or Make Up" at 8 p.m. Friday-Saturday, Jan. 18-19 and 25-26, at St. Dunstan's Playhouse in Bloomfield Hills. Tickets are $8 for adults, $6 for students under 18. For reservations call 644-0527.
- THEATER PARTY
A Benefit Theatre Party for a performance of "Bells Are Ringing" is being sponsored by the Michigan Cancer Foundation's Southwest Regional Board at 8 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 19, at the Birmingham Theatre. The musical includes Comden-Green-Stein songs "Just in Time," "The Party's Over" and "Long Before I Knew You." Tickets at $22.50 may be ordered from the volunteers at MCF's West Office in Dearborn. To order, call 336-4110 before Friday, Dec. 28, between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. Tickets must be paid for by Dec. 28 and will be delivered the first week in January. For those who do not care to drive, transportation via the Dearborn Trolley will be provided at an additional fee. A trolley load of 30 is required.
- LA CASA
Steve Young, a pioneer of country rock, will do a showcase performance for the La Casa Folk Music Series on Monday, Dec. 31 (New Year's Eve), at the Birmingham Unitarian Church in Bloomfield Hills. Showtime is 9 p.m. Reservations are recommended, but tickets will be available at the door. Tickets are $20, and this is a Potluck Dinner as well. Information and reservations may be obtained by calling 540-9031.
- DETROIT YOUTHEATRE
The Detroit Institute of Arts' own Prince Street Players perform the new, original musical comedy, "The Emperor's New Clothes," on stage at the DIA every day of the school/holiday break, Wednesday-Monday, Dec. 28-30. Prince Street Players has been the Detroit Youththeatre's resident company since 1982. Eight performances of this original 90-minute production will be given at 2 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 28, and Sunday, Dec. 30, and at 11 a.m. Thursday-Saturday, Dec. 27-29. All tickets are $6. No one younger than 5 years old will be admitted to the theater. Tickets and gift certificates may be charged by calling the DIA Ticket Office at 833-2323 between 9:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. daily.
- MUSICAL 'HAIR'
"Hair," the 1968 musical that defined a generation, comes to Detroit's Fisher Theatre for eight performances Tuesday-Sunday, Jan. 15-20. The original Broadway cast album, with songs by composer Galt MacDermot and playwright/lyricists James Rado and Gerome Ragni, was released in 1968 and spent 13 weeks at No. 1 and 59 weeks on the Top 40 charts. Originally presented at the New York Shakespeare Festival in 1967, "Hair" moved to the Cheetah Club in New York City in December before eventually making its way to the Billmore Theatre on Broadway where it played for four years beginning in 1968. Tickets are available at all Ticketmaster outlets or the Fisher Theatre box office, 872-1000. To charge tickets by phone call 645-6666.
- CHILDREN'S SHOWS
Detroit-area Cub Scouts will be honored at special Detroit Youththeatre Saturday "Salute Day" presentations in the Detroit Institute of Arts auditorium/theater. "Holly Folly Christmas" will be performed Saturday, Dec. 22. One of Santa's most creative elves, Ken Schultz, invites members of his audience up onto the stage to help him with his holiday preparations. No one younger than 3 years will be admitted. "Dragonfeathers" will be performed March 23. Chicago's Melkin Puppet Theatre will bring its magic dragon, Puff, and a 20-foot Chinese parade dragon named Howling to explore modern and ancient myths, for ages 6 years and older. No one younger than 5 years will be admitted. For groups of 10 or more, tickets are $4 each for young people and adults ($5 each when purchased individually). Tickets and coupon books also will be sold at the door on performance.
