LET US RESOLVE TO HELP OTHERS AS WELL AS OURSELVES
A few nights from now, friends and relatives will gather for the annual gala celebration, with an eye on the clock as it edges toward midnight and the new year. However, we should also dwell on the more serious significance of hanging up a new calendar. Most of us have some abandoned resolutions left over from last year, and we may as well renew our pledge to fulfill them. Moreover, we should add a few others: helping the poor, taking more interest in government, and doing a few sensible things for the environment, such as recycling. Our most important resolution, however, should be to attend our House of Worship and adopt its principles. This will impel us to do all those other things, and give us a good start on the new year.
He has half the deed done, who has made a beginning.
-Horace
"Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me."
-Psalm 51:10
