

Coleman, Lorenger find hunting success

WHILE MOST 9-year-old boys are busy worrying if Michelangelo and Donatello will be able to fend off the evil powers of Shredder, West Bloomfield's Brett Coleman has other things on his mind — like when his next hunting trip will take place.

Few 9-year-olds have had the opportunity to shoot a gun much less hunt with one, but Coleman has excelled at both.

Michigan law requires that children be at least 12 years old before purchasing a hunting license, but in Texas the minimum age is 6. For the last two years, Brett and his father Bob have taken an annual hunting trip to the Anchor Ranch in Utopia, Texas.

Last year, the young sharpshooter enjoyed enough success to turn most hunters green with envy. He shot an eight-point whitetail buck, a coyote, an armadillo and a Black Hawaiian ram. In November, during this year's trip, Brett shot a Russian bear and a Corsican ram. Both rams were big enough to qualify for the Safari Club International record book.

"I've hunted most of my life, and I took Brett out pheasant hunting and deer hunting with me a couple times," explained Bob. "He really took a liking to it so we decided to go on a hunt in Texas (where Brett could legally hunt) last year."

"He's turned into a pretty good hunter. He gets excited, but nothing like buck fever," added Bob. "He's actually pretty steady and he's a pretty good shot. He shot the (Corsican) ram at about 130-yards."

FIRST BUCK

Opening day of the 1990 firearms deer season will be a memorable one for Mike Lorenger. Hunting from a blind near the edge of a swamp in Lake County, the 15-year-old Livonia resident shot his first buck, a 150-pound three-point.

Bill Parker outdoors

FIRST ELK

Bob Clay has hunted deer all his life, but he never saw an elk until this year.

Clay was one of the lucky hunters to receive an antlerless only permit for the 1990 fall elk hunt. With the help of guides Jim Cavenier and Ray Lucas, Clay shot a 320-pound cow at 1:15 p.m. on opening day.

"I had a great time," explained the Bedford resident. "I was hunting on the Canadian Creek Ranch near Atlanta and that place is loaded with elk. The one I shot was in a herd of about 30 or 40 and they were about 500 feet from the road."

When the memory of the hunt begins to fade in the years to come, Clay can easily refresh his memory since his neighbor, Harold Priewe, joined him on the hunt and videotaped all the events.

TROPHY HUNTERS

Commemorative Bucks of Michigan encourages all hunters who took a large antlered buck this year to have the rack scored by an official measurer and entered into the 1990

Michigan Big Game Awards Program

Measurers will score the rack free of charge and the process only takes about 20 minutes.

CBM, based in Walled Lake, is a non-profit corporation, founded in 1981 to maintain the records of Michigan's biggest whitetail deer, elk, black bear and turkey.

To have a deer, bear, elk or turkey measured (animals taken in previous years can also be scored) contact a measurer for an appointment. Local measurers include: Joe Newmeyer, Walled Lake, 624-1355; Dan LaRose, Birmingham, 851-7167; John Major, Troy, 879-1032; Mike Saunders, Taylor, 941-8452; Ron Foss, Dearborn, 274-6977; Bert Metzger, West Bloomfield, 626-3121; Don Foss, Dearborn, 565-6785.

For more information or a complete list of official measurers contact CBM at 3215 Old Farm Lane, Walled Lake, MI 48390, 669-4750.

WORLD RECORD

It's official.

The National Freshwater Fishing Hall of Fame in Hayward, Wisconsin has certified Chip Drotos' 1-pound 8-ounce green sunfish as an official world record in the 10-pound line test class.

Drotos, of Bloomfield Hills, caught the fish on Oct. 17th on Kirkwood Lake. He was fishing a "Momma's Cat" crankbait late in the afternoon.

(Bill Parker is happy to answer questions readers have about the outdoors. Anglers and hunters are urged to report their success. Send questions or comments to Outdoors, 565 E. Maple, Birmingham, MI 48006, or call Parker at 644-1191 on weekday evenings.)
