in league races

There's po doubling Oakland University's basketball teams are right where they belong — in the midst of the jumbled Great Lakes Intercolle-glate Athletic Conference races. But then again, who hart? OU's ments team helped make things interesting by knocking off pre-viously unbeaten Lake Superior State 85-69 Thursday at OU's Lepley Sports Center. The loss dropped the Lakers to 3-1, but kept them in first place. Northerm Michigan is 2-1 and everyone else is either 2-2 (OU, for one) or 1-3.

place. Northern Michigan is 2-1 and everyone ease is cluber 24 (000, 10 one) or 1-3. The women's race is similar. Again, Lake Superior brought an unblem-tithous and the second second second second second second second spin one: Out defeated the Lady Lakers 74-87. Lake Superior 1s 3-1, a game bohnd supprising Ferris State (+0). OU and several others are 2-2, but only Hilbaide (0-4) is without a win. Since Ferris State was 2-14 a year ago and has never been among the frontrunners in the league, chances are the Lady Buildogs won't stay unscathed for long. Which means the women's race — like the men's — is still wide open.

OU'S MEN'S win over Lake Superior Thursday resulted from good defense in the first half (the Lakers made just 12-0-30 from the field, 40 percent) and solid offense in the second (20-67-27 from the floor, 74 per-cent). The Pioneers led 34-32 at halftime, then pulled away with a 51-37 second-half surge.

cent). The Pioneers led 34-32 at halftime, then pulled away with a 51-37 second-half surge. Eric Taylor sparked OU, scoring 16 of bis game-bigh 24 points over the last 20 minutes. Taylor also had five steals. Anthony Sould separkled as well, with 21 points (60-9 from the field) and eight rebounds. Tom Eller had 15 points, flore rebounds, two blocks and two steals, and Tony How-ard contributed 11 points, four assists and four steals. OU broke away from a 47-all lie with a 12-1 run to go up 59-48 with 10:15 remaining, but the Lakers battled back to within 64-61 with 7:11 to play. The Pioneers, however, answered with a 9-3 run that lengthened their lead to 73-63 with 4:50 left. Taylor ignited both streaks, scoring five in the first and six in the second. Heart Tomas netued 15 points, Carlos Fordham had 14, Rick Gray scored 12 and Bobby Allen collected 11 for Lake Superior. Allen also had 15 rebounds, six assists and three steals.

Lake Superior is 7-5 overall; OU is 6-8. OU'S WOMEN'S victory came at an unlikely place — the free throw line. In a loss at Grand Valley State Jan. 4, the Lady Ploneers made just 2-0-1-16 from the stripe; in the first half of Thursday's game against Lake Superior State, they weren't much better, making just 7-0-1-18 (39 per-cent). But when the game was on the line, OU came through. The Lady Lakers, who trailed 37-32 at the half, wore within 68-64 with 1:26 left. They couldn't catch the Lady Ploneers, however, Stace Lamphere made 4-04 free throws and Janice Komman was 2-for-2 in the final :23 to ice the triumph. OU was 16-0f-18 from the line (89 percent) in the second half. Jennifer Golen's 18 points paced OU; she also had three assists and two steals. Lamphere collected 12 points and six rebounds, and Korman had 11 points and five assist. Regina Woodard puiled down 11 boards – eight offensive. Aimee Bergers had 18 points to lead Lake Superior. Natasha Porter finished with 17. OU is 9-6 overall, while Lake Superior fell to 8-6. Both OU teams host Wayne State Thursday (women at 5:30 p.m., men at 7:30 p.m.), then travel to Ferris State Saturday (women at 1 p.m., men at 3 p.m.).
