

Wishing the troops luck — and a safe return

Instructor Ed Wooster (right) oversees the creation of greeting cards, hand-created picture post cards and letters that are on their way to the Persian Gulf. The greetings come from youngsters who attend before- and after-school hours in Prime Time at Flanders Elementary School in the Farmington District. The 6- to 10-year-olds — including fifth-grader Rachel Tymkow (below, left) — wished the troops good luck, told them to come home soon and wrote about themselves. Many included their favorite jokes.

Broomfield lists nominees

U.S. Rep. William Broomfield, R-Lake Orion, announced the names of his nominees and appointments to the U.S. Air Force, Military and Naval academies.

Charles Chuba and Adam Corbin of Farmington Hills are nominees for the Air Force Academy.

John Cowan from Farmington Hills is the nominee for the Naval Academy.

Philip Blanton from Farmington Hills and Eric Meyer from Farmington are nominees for the Military Academy.

All nominees are selected on a competitive basis as a result of SAT/ACT scores, scholastic record, extracurricular activities, leadership potential, and the recommendations of high school counselors. Under the competitive appointment system used by Broomfield, final appointments are made by selection boards at each academy.

All appointments will be made by April 30.

The Smith Theatre Presents FOOTLOOSE

A real "audience band" whose rhythms, excellent vocals and irresistible enthusiasm lead to clapping, tapping and singing on both sides of the footlights.

Footloose offers bluegrass and ballads, blues and swing jazz, traditional and contemporary folk music, original compositions and fun.
