SOAP TALK

Leonard Stabb a one-time model

By Candace Havens

Dear Candace: I was curious about the guy who plays Hunter on One Life to Live. He is so good looking and I'm sure I've seen him somewhere before. Where is he from and is he married?
—Lola, Tenn.

Dear Reader: Leonard Stabb is the actor who plays Hunter Guthrie, the mysterious film director and actor who is determined to make an Academy Award-winning film and win back the heart of Megan Gordon.

Stabb is an international model, and it is possible you may have seen him in an ad. He enjoyed the travel and the experience the jobs offered, especially the stunts that had him traveling throughout the United States, Europe, Japan and Australia.

Stabb finally decided it was time to start acting and moved from his home in California to New York City to study with William Esper. He made his acting debut when he first appeared on OLTL last November. He has always wanted to be an actor, he said, "ever since I was 7 years old and would perform for my friends and family in our backyard."

He is an expert at hang gliding, a sport he has engaged in since the age of 15 while growing up in Northern California. Now that he lives in New York, he likes to go upstate almost every weekend to hang glide. An avid sportsman, Stabb also enjoys roller blading, football and basketball. Other hobbies include painting, carpentry and spending time with his dog, Girl. He is not married.

Dear Candace: My question is about The Young and the Restless. Nikki and Victor's children have grown by about five years in a very short amount of time, but Phillip IV (who was born before Nikki's son) is still the same age. How and why is this? —Paula Bailey, Fort Madison, Ia.

Dear Paula: As with most soaps, when children are involved and the storyline takes a new twist, the children are often aged. Y&R was sadly lacking in the teen department now that Cricket has grown up and married. So it is not too surprising they aged Victoria and Nicholas.

I want to hear from you! If you have a favorite soap scenario you would like to sound off about, or a question about the soaps, write to Candace Havens, Soap Talk, P.O. Box 17748, Fort Worth, TX 76102-0748.
