Added touch

An ecologically conscious alternative to throwing rice, confetti or releasing balloons, Mullen and Fitzmaurice "Wedding Throws" combine bird seed and rose petals to toss. Not only will the birds enjoy the treat, the rose petals are the perfect romantic sendoff for newlyweds. Net weight, 1 lb. $10. At right: Orrefors, lead crystal made in Sweden, known for its clarity and contemporary design. Orion bowl, 8" in diameter, $125; Corona vase, 7 1/2" high, $125; Prelude stemware, wine or water goblet, $39. At Jacobson's.

Bridal tidbits

Ancient Roman couples needed 10 witnesses to make their nuptials official, several of whom wore identical clothes to the bride and groom to confuse evil spirits.

Brides have worn their wedding and engagement rings on the third finger of the left hand since the ancient Greeks believed that a vein from that finger led directly to the heart.

To be considered officially engaged, the bride and groom must exchange the ring or rings before the wedding. The wedding ring is a symbol of commitment.

The bride's veil is a symbol of modesty and is worn to hide the bride's face from the groom until the wedding. The veil is also a symbol of the bride's purity.
