The Day Curt Hall Met Hank Greenberg

There probably are not many residents left who can recall that day in June 1936 when Hank Greenberg visited Farmington and signed a blank check for Curtis Hall.

Unfortunately for Curt, it was the back of a blank check that Greenberg signed but it was a cherished autograph just the same.

was the back of a blank check that Greenberg signed but it was a cherished autograph just the same.

THIS WRITER learned of the incident while reading a June 11, 1936 edition of the Farmington Enterprise which included an account of the Farmington Enterprise which included an account of the Tiger Slugger's visit here and bits encounter with Curt Hall.

Greenberg was not playing sirst base for the Tigers at the time because of a broken arrived in Farmington, the still a traval town.
