KIDS NIGHT OUT

The Y will be offering Kids Night Out on Saturday, March 9. The program will include lots of fun and games in the gym and pool. First through fifth graders are eligible. The program runs 7-11 p.m. Early registration is recommended.

YOUTH T-BALL

Registration for the Y's spring T-ball program begins the week of March 18. The program is open to boys and girls currently in K through 3rd grade. Participants must also be 5 years old. March 18 will be mandatory registration day followed by program members only, Tuesday, March 19 through Saturday, March 23.

FIRST AID

The YMCA will be offering this course from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, March 2. Participants will receive First Aid and Adult CPR Certification upon successful completion of the course.

MESSAGE INSTRUCTION

Bring a friend and enjoy the many benefits of massage. This class will demonstrate effective massage techniques to relieve every day stress and tension. The class is 6:30-7:30 p.m. Thursdays starting Thursday, Feb. 28.

SENIORS IN MOTION

The YMCA offers an exciting Fitness Class for adults 60 and older. "Seniors in Motion" is 8-9 a.m. Monday, Wednesday and Friday and 1-2 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday. Class components include a warm-up and stretch, strength training and cardiovascular fitness period. Call the Y for more information.

GYMNASTICS

The YMCA has some openings in the preschool and youth gymnastics programs. The program is available for 24 month to 14-year-olds and is held at the Y. Call Jean Warren for more information.

YMCA seeks nominees for award

The board of directors of the Farmington Area YMCA is accepting nominations for the Youth Christian Leadership Award. This is the third year for the award. To be eligible, an individual must be no older than 20 years of age, reside in Farmington, Farmington Hills, West Bloomfield or Novi, and have demonstrated church commitment, service to others, prayer life, and faith in daily living.

Nomination forms can be picked up at the YMCA, 28100 Farmington Road, Farmington Hills. Nominations are due by Friday, March 8. The awardee will be honored at a YMCA board meeting, receive a YMCA membership and a $250 savings bonds. Past recipients are Raymond Waller, of Seventh Day Adventist Church, and Daniel Latimer of First United Methodist. Both were co-recipients in 1989. The 1990 Awardee was Andrea Whitman of Grace Chapel.

Free eye exams offered next week

Volunteer members of Michigan Optometric Association are providing free eye examinations to low-income workers and their families during national Save Your Vision Week, March 3-9. The participating optometrist for Farmington area residents is Dr. H.

B. Dublin. Those who qualify may call him in downtown Farmington, at 477-1616.

The Vision USA project is open to those who meet the following criteria: a member of the household must be employed, the family must not be covered by health insurance, eye exams must not have been received in the past year and income cannot exceed an established level based on family size.

Eye glasses for those in need will be provided by local laboratories for a small contribution to the program.
