

Salem reclaims WLAA crown

By Dan O'Meara
staff writer

If the calendar says it's an odd-numbered year, then Plymouth Salem must be the boys basketball champion of the Western Lakes Activities Association.

The Rocks upheld a pattern for success, winning their third title in five years Saturday night with an 83-72 victory over Plymouth Canton in the final of the post-season tournament at Salem.

Salem, which finished the regular season at 18-2, has won championships in 1987, 1989 and 1991. The Rocks were runners-up in 1988 and 1990. The Chiefs are 12-8.

"It was important for me and the other seniors to go out winning on our court," said Salem senior Jake Baker, who scored a game-high 22 points. "None of us wanted the last home game to be remembered as a loss to Canton."

"It's tough when you're the favorite and have to battle every game, but it shakes it that much sweeter when you win," Salem coach Bob Brodie said. "We've played for the championship five straight years, and that in itself is an accomplishment."

BAKER SET the offensive pace for the Rocks, who had extraordinary results shooting the ball. Salem shot an impressive 63 percent from the floor, making 32 of 51 field goals.

The Rocks weren't just shooting layups, either. Baker had six field goals, all three-pointers. In the second quarter, he hit triples on three straight possessions.

"We were coming down on one side and swinging the ball around," Baker said, "and they weren't matching up. They weren't checking me, and I just kept shooting it."

K.C. Kirkpatrick also played a strong game for Salem, scoring 21 points on eight field goals, which included a nice dunk, and four free throws. Chris Tebben was seven of 11 shooting free throws and scored 15 points, and John Hoffmeyer had a strong second half and finished with 13.

"It was like Operation Desert Storm out there for a while," Brodie said. "Both teams were firing away in the first half. We just continued to shoot well the whole game."

Unlike the first meeting when Salem had a 31-21 halftime lead and was squashed by 58-53, the Rocks maintained their intensity on offense, Brodie said. Salem shot 54 percent in the first quarter and 50 percent, 70 percent and 79 percent in the next three.

"WE CONTINUED to be offensive-minded in the second half, and we played defense all four quarters," Brodie said.

"In the last game we slowed it down, and I think we've changed a lot since then," Baker said. "We were a slower team then, and now we emphasize running."

Despite the exceptional shooting, Salem didn't have an easy time against the Chiefs, who refused to go away. Canton only trailed 61-53 entering the final period and was in the game until the Rocks used their most productive quarter of shooting to win going away.

The Rocks scored 18 points, Michael Stafford 17, Jon Paupore 13 and Kevin Holmes 11 for the Chiefs, who also shot well.

Canton made a respectable 45 percent (25 of 56) of its shots, but that was overshadowed by Salem's amazing numbers. Canton coach Dave Van Wagoner winced when told what the Rocks had shot.

"Tonight, we got beat by a better basketball team," he said, adding the Chiefs can be proud, too. "Salem has a good group of guys, and they have a good coach. We have a good team ourselves."

"WE REALLY felt we had our guys peaking at the right time of the year, and we're proud to be the second-place team in a very up year for the Western Lakes."

The Chiefs, however, were probably forced to rely too much on their outside shooting. Of the four in doubles, only Holmes in a post player. Fouts hurt, too, as center Tony Coshatt and Holmes picked up three apiece in the first half and sat for a while.

Stafford had five triples, McDonald four and Paupore three, but it was that outside shooting that kept Canton in the game when Salem's aggressive, aggressive post defense bottled up the Chiefs inside from the start.

"You can stay with a good team with perimeter shooting," Van Wagoner said, "but I don't know if you can live with it. We just didn't get any inside game going tonight."

Ironically, it was Canton's outside shooting that most concerned Brodie, but the Rocks overcame it with their own shooting.

"They have such tremendous firepower," Brodie said, "and my biggest fear was seeing them catch fire and us wondering what was going on."

THE ROCKS led 18-8 but Canton stayed within 18-13 at the end of one quarter and 42-31 at halftime. Baker had 16 points in the first half. Kirkpatrick and McDonald 11 each. The Chiefs got as close as 57-51 late in the third period in which Holmes scored 10 points before Salem pulled away in the finale.

Bowling centers support anti-drug effort

THE BOWLING CENTERS Association of Michigan has joined forces with the DARE program to help raise funds for the anti-drug awareness efforts of the program.

According to Larry Sisson, president of the BCAM, 220 member centers throughout Michigan will provide free bowling to community organizations, civic organizations and businesses which sign up for the Bowling for DARE parties.

DARE consists of various law enforcement agencies, including the Michigan State Police, who conduct a series of classroom lectures for 40th and sixth grade students on how to resist the pressures of drugs and alcohol.

The DARE program goes beyond the traditional drug abuse program. It teaches kids not to just say no, rather, how to say no.

Here's how you can help. Your local "Bowling for DARE" will help provide a day and time for your group's party at a local bowling center. There is no cost to your group for bowling.

Having the "Bowling for DARE" poster in your lunchroom, coffee room or any other suitable area.

Start signing up for the bowling to benefit DARE. And after the event, coordinate the collection of all monies where the proceeds will be transferred in the DARE program through the BCAM administration office.

Your group will receive a certificate from the Michigan DARE program in recognition of your community support in addition, there will be a "Bowling for DARE" program, which will be held throughout organized youth leagues. Prizes will be awarded. For more information call the BCAM at 559-5207.

The Michigan Center Foundation's Fifth Annual Blanche Robinson Memorial Tournament is accepting entries for the tournament running in April and May at the Merrifield Bowl Lanes in Livonia and the Plum Hollow Lanes in Southfield. Entry blanks are available on the computer at each lane. Entry fee is $25.
