Area powers dominate Observer team

OBSEVERLAND HAD TWO of the state's best swim teams this year, and the 1991 All-Area team reflects the strength of those teams.

Redford Catholic Central won the Catholic League crown and finished third in the Class A meet, and Livonia Stevenson ended Plymouth Salem's three-year reign as Western Lakes Activities Association champ and placed 13th at state.

Eleven of the 18 individuals and four of the six relays receiving berths in the all-area squad hail from one of those two schools.

VC's Troy Shumate, the lone state champion from Observerland, and Mike Hoeflein, and Stevenson's Aaron Rieder are first-team repeaters.

First-team picks Ryan Koonce of Farmington Hills Harrison and Leo Moreira of Redford Thurston, as well as at-large selections Randy Teeters of VC, Pat McManaman of Salem and Jason Barringer of Harrison, make their second straight appearance on the team, too.

Stevenson coach Doug Buckler, having led the Spartans to their most successful season in recent years, was named coach of the year.
