96 children . . . 96 gifts

Three station wagons, filled to overflowing with bunnies and chocolates and eggs and gifts of all description, were delivered to the 96 children who attend Head Start here. The Easter treats came from residents who took tags off the Easter trees in eight sites around the sister cities and filled the baskets for the preschoolers. In one of the station wagons Mario Jermov, Jimmy Matous, Katie Matous and Mathew Jermov helped with the delivering. The event was sponsored by Farmington Area Community Women.
