EDWARD T. HENDERSON, LARRY W. VIRTUE, BENJAMIN Y. WANG and ABOLHASSAN K. KHOSROVANEH, Farmington Hills residents, have been named to the faculty at Lawrence Technological University in Southfield.

They will be lecturers in the university's College of Engineering. Henderson, an engineer at Detroit Edison, holds a master's degree in business administration from the University of Detroit and a bachelor's degree from Western Michigan University.

Virtue, who is retired from General Motors Corp., has a bachelor's degree from General Motors Institute and a master's from Case Institute of Technology.

Wang, a senior project engineer with GM, holds a doctorate from the University of Wisconsin.

Khosrovaneh, also a senior project engineer at GM, has a doctorate from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and a master's and bachelor's degrees from the University.

SONIA SINGH, a Farmington Hills resident and a sophomore at Albion College, spent her spring break in Marlinton, W. Va., with Appalachia Service Project.

She helped build an addition on a house that had no running water or bathroom. She and other students dug trenches for the pipes and well. ASP organizes volunteer groups from schools and churches from across the nation for work projects in Appalachia. The Albion group held fund-raisers to pay for the trip.

Singh, a 1989 graduate of North Farmington High School, is a biology and Spanish major. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nirmal Singh of Farmington Hills.

HEATHER L. REILLY of Farmington Hills has joined Peer Counselors at Lake Forest College in Illinois.

Members of the group attempt to aid fellow students in dealing with a variety of problems and concerns, including drug and alcohol use.

Reilly, a graduate of North Farmington High School, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Reilly of Farmington Hills.

RAYMOND F. WILLIAMS, a U.S. Army private and a cannon crewman at Sheridan Kaserne, Germany, has been decorated with the Army Achievement Medal, awarded to soldiers for meritorious service, acts of courage or other accomplishments. Williams, a 1974 graduate of Redford Union High School, is the son of Raymond Williams of Farmington.

JEAN K. CAVA of Farmington was one of nine state employees to receive recognition for their suggestions to improve state government. Cava, an institution social work technician with the Department of Mental Health, received $1,000 for her idea to install "foreign exchange" telephone lines at Northville Regional Psychiatric Hospital to lower long distance costs. First-year savings were estimated at $72,674.

SOL ROSSMAN, a Farmington Hills resident and an associate professor of Romance languages at Wayne State University, was elected to a three-year term as a member-at-large of the WSU's Academic Senate. His term begins in September.

REBECCA ANN PIETI, daughter of Paul and Virginia Pieti of Farmington Hills, recently completed the Federal Aviation Administration's nine-week Air Traffic Controller basic course at the FAA Academy in Oklahoma City.

Upon reporting for duty at the FAA's Great Lakes Region, she will work toward the air traffic control journeyman classification.

CYNTHIA SCHUMACHER, a Farmington Hills resident and a delivery driver for United Parcel Service, was recently recognized by the company for completing five years of driving without an accident. Schumacher works out of the UPS facility in Livonia. She provides delivery service in the Farmington area.

JEFFREY BARRINGER and GERALD HAKALA, Albion College students from Farmington Hills, have pledged fraternities at the college.

Barringer, a 1989 graduate of Farmington Harrison and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rick Barringer, pledged the Beta Omicron chapter of Alpha Tau Omega.

Hakala, a 1989 graduate of North Farmington and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hakala, pledged the Epsilon chapter of Delta Tau Delta.

Filming the fall

When the Chrysler Corp. Jefferson Avenue plant came crashing to the ground March 3, cameraman Tony Gallucci (left) and video technician Dave Murto of the Farmington Hills-based Film Craft Video were on hand to capture the event on tape. The crew, contracted to videotape the demolition, was positioned on the roof of an adjacent building.
