Rocks outlast Hawks, 3-2

Plymouth Salem received an early season boost toward a possible Western Lakes Activities Association baseball utile when it edged Farmington Hills Harrison 3-2 Thursday.
The victory was a positive step for the best Rocks, who improved to 3-0. Harrision (0-1) is expected to contend for the Western Division crown.

Rocks, who improved to 3-th marriawa (173) expected to contend for the Westerp Division crown.

Salem was led by senior pitcher Scott Rodgers (2-0), who pitched six innings and struck out 11. Beric Nielson pitched the last inning and earned a save. The Hawks managed a total of seven hits.

"If Rodgers can do this all year, we'll have a great year," Salem coach John Gravlin said. "I was impressed with the pitchers on both side." was impressed with the pitchers on both side." worked three innings and took in Gary Device worked three innings and took in Gary Device in the control of the pame. Rodgers also led the Rocks at the plate, knocking in two runs with a sacrifice fly in the first inning and a double in the third. Nielson, who had two hist and scored two runs, accounted for the winning run with two out in the third, giving Salem a 3-1 lead at the time.
