

Soroptimists Offer $1,500 Scholarship

A $1,500 scholarship for a nursing student will be awarded this year by the Soroptimist Federation of the Americas.

The scholarship is an annual one for a young woman interested in entering in an advanced program of nursing.

Mr. Nadine Cardone, past president of the Farmington Soroptimist Club, is regional chairman and in charge of the award this year.

APPLICATION forms are available from Mrs. Cardone, who can be reached at 33740 Macomb, Farmington, or by calling KIE 3-4500, or from residents of any of four Soroptimist clubs in the Obis areas.

They are Shirley Hatfield, Farmington presid., 35050 Shiawassee, Farmington, 48024; Mrs. Eileen Boze, Livonia president, 29514 W.

Seven Mile, Livonia, 48152; Mrs. Virginia Gibson, Plymouth president, 11638 Butter nut, Plymouth, 48170; and Mrs. Marie Sanchez, Redford, 18848 Beech-Dale, Detroit, 48240.

DEADLINE for filing applications is March 25.

Applicants should include three letters of character reference, a high school transcript of high school credits, a personal inventory covering scholastic recognitions, extra-curricular activities and work experience, a photograph, evidence of need and a description of professional goals.

The scholarship winner will be announced after the membership approves the committee's selection at the regional spring conference in Detroit April 23 to 25.

Women, whether young, old, single, married or working, will be the focus of attention on Monday, March 8, on the Orchard Ridge campus of the Oakland Community College.

All women from the area are invited to participate in the Women's Teach-In sponsored by the Student Activities office of the commercial, industrial and technical division.

A series of workshops will be offered throughout the day with a student and a faculty member moderating each session. Each workshop will meet in Room J-306.

Alternatives to Marriage and Motherhood, Raising Liberated Children and Sexism will be the first workshops of the day running from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m.

AFTER A brief lunch,

New Pants Classes Begin

New Pants Perfection classes will begin in the J. L. Hudson Westland and downtown stores on Wednesday, March 10, and Thursday, March 11.

Women interested in learning to make pants fit properly and getting hints on the proper style for their figure types are urged to register in the pattern department. They also may telephone either store to register.

The cost is $5 for two lessons of two hours each. Wednesday classes will be from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. and Thursday classes from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m.

Garden Club Will Hear 'Prophecies'

Wed In Memorial

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Alexander Young are making their home in Inkster following their marriage in the Memorial Church of Christ in Livonia.

The bride is the former Linda Alice Wilburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert D. Wilburn of Redford Township. Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Young of Howell are parents of the bridegroom.

The Rev. Max Copeland officiated for the double-ring ceremony, and the bride's father gave her in marriage.

IVORY SATE-PEAU fashioned the bride's gown, designed with mandarin neckline, bishop sleeves and detachable train. Venice lace in a window-pane design trimmed the bodice.

A matching lace headpiece held her veil, and she carried a cascade of pink roses, white carnations and stephanotis.

Three attendants wore candlelight crepe ruffled blouses, long tapestry skirts in pink, white, green, green flowers, and moss green cummerbunds. They carried nosegays of pink carnations.

Mrs. Linda Porter was matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Sandra Slayton and Mrs. Julie Clark.

JONATHON YOUNG, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Timothy Shilt re-

Adults May Take Equivalency Tests

The more than 600,000 Detroit-area adults who do not have high school diplomas may prepare themselves to earn high school graduation equivalency certificates by watching a weekday television series which started on Channel 4 Monday, March 1, at 6:30 a.m.

The series, called "Operation Second Chance," includes 60 half-hour programs designed to prepare viewers to pass the National General Education Development (GED) test which will be given at the conclusion of the 12-week course. Late registration is possible up to March 8.

THOSE WHO PASS will receive a test certificate which is accepted as equivalent to a high school diploma by most businesses, unions, government agencies and colleges.

Subjects covered include English literature, grammar, general mathematics, social studies and natural science.

The series is sponsored by Michigan Blue Shield and is produced by the adult education department of the Detroit Board of Education. Information may be obtained at the Urban Adult Education Institute, 8721 John C. Lodge.
