Down through the centuries has come the diamond, most enduring and brilliant of all gems. Once worn only by nobility, the diamond has evolved as the symbol of love and devotion.

As a perfect symbol of your love, your diamond ring will reflect forever the enchantment of your happiness ... and tell of your devotion in terms of brilliant, everlasting beauty.

Taking care of them
is taking care of yourself
... almost

Almost because as concerned and careful as you may be about your well being, life can take a turn for the unexpected. And suddenly your family may not be taken care of at all.

So even if you are young and in perfect health, we urge you to insure your family's financial future ... not just be taking care of yourself but by setting up your life insurance program now. No obligation, of course.
