NORTH PARMINGTON kept pace with co-leader Walfed Lake Central in the Lakes Division of the WLAA, taking a 3-1 victory from visiting Plymouth Salem Thursday.

The Raiders and Central are 7-1 in the division, the Rocks 1-7. North is 14-3 overail, Salem 4-13.

Jennifer Lydon pitched a two-hilter for the Raiders, striking out three and walking one in seven innings. Jenny Garvey went the distance for Salem. Dana Botwick's two-run triple scored Michelle Bohnke and Tanya Proctor in the fourth inning and broke a 1-1 tie. Katle Bohnke had a run-scoring double in the first to give North an early lead.

A throwing error allowed Salem's Kristin Stackpoole to score the tying run rom third base in the third inning.

"Salem is getting better with every game," North coach Dave Brubaker sald, adding the Raiders won two earlier games by larger margins.

"Il we win our next two (with Westland John Gienn today and Livonia Stevenson on Wednesday), the worst we could do is tie for the division title. But right now we're not playing well. My team was kind of lethargic today." The Rocks play host to Central today and travel to Ann Arbor Huron for a pre-district qualifying game Thursday.

"My girls seem to be a little more confident out there." Salem coach Rob Willette said. "We're not walking as many and looking sharper."

The Rocks rederated Lyonia Churchill 6-9 Friday, moving their season walkdo note.

Michelle Bohnke had two hits, including a double, and one RBI. With the score tied 3-3 in the eighth inning. Proctor singled home the go-ahead run. Two more runs scored as the result of Churchill errors.
