

Area woman wins prize for recipe

Antipasto Corn Bread, a recipe created by Joyce Ferguson of Rochester Hills, has been named first-prize winner in the Breads and Coffee Cakes category of Quaker cornmeal's recent "Contemporary Classics" Recipe Contest.

Four easy-to-prepare recipes each were selected for $1,000 first prizes. The annual search for recipes prepared with Quaker corn meal drew nearly 30 percent more entries than in previous years.

Ferguson's recipe combines traditional corn bread flavor with the Italian-style additions of pepperoni, olives, cheese, bell peppers, basil and oregano. The versatile bread may be baked in a baking pan, a cast iron skillet or in muffin pans.

ANTIPASTO CORNBREAD

1 cup Quaker Corn Meal
1 cup all-purpose flour
2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 teaspoon salt (optional)
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup plain low-fat yogurt
1/2 cup (1/2 stick) margarine, melted
2 eggs, slightly beaten
1/2 cup chopped pepperoni
One 2 1/2 ounce can (1/2 cup) dried ripe olives, drained

1/2 cup shredded provolone or mozzarella cheese
1/2 cup seeded, chopped tomato
1 tablespoon fresh chopped basil or 1 teaspoon dried basil
1/4 teaspoon dried oregano leaves

Heat oven to 400 degrees. Grease nine-by-nine-inch baking pan or 10-inch cast iron skillet. Combine corn meal, flour, baking powder, baking soda and salt; mix well. Combine milk, yogurt, margarine and eggs; stir until smooth. Add combined pepperoni, olives, cheese, tomato and herbs; mix well. Blend into dry ingredients, mixing just until moistened. Spread into prepared pan. Bake 22 to 25 minutes or until deep golden brown. Cool 10 minutes in pan on wire rack. Nine servings.

Variation: For muffins, grease 12 3-inch muffin cups or line with paper baking cups. Prepare batter as recipe directs; fill prepared muffin cups 3/4 full. Bake 16 to 18 minutes or until deep golden brown.

Mumm's the word in Napa Valley

Around the country, Mumm Napa Valley wines are making more than mere splashes in champagne glasses. In 1994, Mumm Napa Valley made a modest debut with 10,000 cases of its non-vintage Mumm Cuvee Napa. Today, it is still considered among California's newest methode champenoise sparkling wine producers but one of the top sellers, producing slightly more than 100,000 cases after only five years.

Mumm Napa Valley is a joint venture between the Champagne house of G.H. Mumm & Co. of Reims, France and the Seagram Classics Wine Co. Classics, a premier producer and marketer of fine wines, fruit, yogurt, margarine and eggs. Vineyards and the Monterey Vineyard. It also imports and markets Champagne Mumm.

"While it carries the name of its prestigious parent company, at Mumm Valley we're not trying to make an expression of a French product," said winemaker Greg Fowler. "Mumm Napa Valley is a fruit-oriented style of sparkling wine."

"In any non-vintage sparkling wine, such as our Brut Prestige, the house style must dominate. Ours is an artistic expression of California fruit. We source from 56 vineyards and contract with 34 growers to produce the Mumm-Napa Valley style. For other wines in the product line, the vineyard or the vintage can be staged."

THIS WAS DONE exceptionally well in 1989 when Mumm Napa Valley introduced the country's first vineyard-designated sparkling wine, Winery Lake sparkling wine. "In this wine, the plurality of pinot noir (60 percent) offers the backbone. The chardonnay (40 percent) adds zest and livens the overall presentation."

"Each year, this vineyard-designated release represents both the character of the vintage and the expression of the vineyard."

The proof of Fowler's statement is immediately perceived when the 1987 Winery Lake sparkling wine

(824) is assessed. It was a relatively cool vintage in 1987 — just what grapes destined for sparkling wine need. They maintain their vibrant acidity while developing full aromas and flavors.

The top of the line packaging from Mumm Napa Valley is the Vintage Reserve, made only in years exhibiting special qualities. Current release is the 1987 Vintage Reserve (824). It is lean, streamlined, elegant and finesseful. "I'm extremely pleased with this wine," said Fowler. "I think we got it just right."

What's next? "We made a 1989 cuvee," Fowler said. "But I'm not sure yet, if it will be released as a Vintage Reserve or not."

While Fowler said that his product is not an imitation of a French champagne, it must be noted that the company's president and chief de caves Guy Devaux was born in Epernay, in the heart of France's Champagne district. Devaux has devoted more than 40 years to creating fine still and sparkling wines in France and the United States.

WINE SELECTION OF THE WEEK

Mumm Napa Valley Brut Prestige (817) showcases ripe, fragrant fruit aromas over gentle toastiness. It offers a full palate impression of flavorful fruit with a lengthy finish. It is a blend of 60 percent pinot noir, 35 percent chardonnay, 5 percent pinot meunier with pinot gris as the balance. The latter, albeit small percentage, adds a spice element to the nose and sets the house style apart. This sparkling will please those toasting the bride, celebrating a June anniversary, or simply enjoying the gift of friendship.

page district. Devaux has devoted more than 40 years to creating fine still and sparkling wines in France and the United States.

In 1960, Devaux came to the United States to work at Gold Seal Winery in Hammondsport, in New York Finger Lakes. Gold Seal was a pioneer in the production of sparkling wines. In 1979, Devaux drew on his sparkling wine knowledge and became involved in the development of Mumm Napa Valley.
